BISHOP'S ADDRESS

193rd ANNUAL CONVENTION OF
THE DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA

October 22/23, 1976

THE RT. REV. LYMAN C. OGILBY

PSALM 89, PART 1 — COLOSSIANS 1:2–20

"THE KINGDOM OF GOD"

The love of the Father enfold me,
The wisdom of the Son enlighten me,
The fire of the Holy Spirit inflame me.

"Tell it out among the nations: 'The Lord is King!' " Psalm 96

"The Lord is King; let the earth rejoice; let the multitude of the isles be glad." Psalm 97

"The Lord is King; let the people tremble; he is enthroned upon the cherubim; let the earth shake." Psalm 99

"I will exalt you, O God my King, and bless your Name for ever and ever . . . That the peoples may know of your power and the glorious splendor of your kingdom." Psalm 145

The Kingdom of God is the central theme of the teaching of Jesus, and it involves His whole understanding of His own person and ministry. His relationship to the Judaism of His time represented an exciting new call to the basic implications of the covenant relationship between God and His people, as experienced by the Jews and recorded in their Scripture. This was the meaning of His whole life, work, death, and resurrection. And it was such a dramatic and shattering challenge, enveloped as it was in His person and being, to the understanding of the established religious authorities of the day that the outcome had to be the fatal consequence of the execution at Calvary.

This new call to a rediscovery of God's sovereignity—this fulfillment of the Law, this giving firm foundation to the covenant relationship—is precisely to which Jesus of Nazareth spoke and acted. When His disciples were charged with plucking and eating corn on the sabbath, Jesus drove the accusers back to the basic meaning of their teaching as interpreted and authenticated by the prophets: The sabbath was made for man, not man for the sabbath.

Again, in the discussion of divorce, Jesus does not take sides with either of the two great Jewish legalists—the humanitarian Hillel or the constructionist Shammai: He goes back to the story of creation and points out that God's original intention had been the lifelong union of one man with one woman. This intention humanity had failed to realize, but Jesus made it clear that He was concerned with nothing less than the renewal of the world on the lines of God's original purpose.

Mark summarizes the message which Jesus came into Galilee preaching: "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent, and believe in the Gospel." The fundamental message of Jesus' proclamation was that that day had now dawned. The things which many prophets and religious people had long desired to see and hear are now present before the eyes and in the ears of Jesus' disciples. God's reign is here. It is so near at hand that already the signs of its activity are manifest; and men and women must make some response to the claims which it lays upon them. The signs of God's rule were present in the work and words of Jesus himself; they are proclaimed alike in His deeds and in His parables. The kingdom of God manifested in and by Jesus is essentially God's kingdom and not ours. It is something which God gives, not something which men build. It is an act of God himself; it is His initiative in breaking the power of evil. But, just because in the ministry of Jesus the kingdom was present in germinal rather than in finished form, men and women have still their part to play: they must make a response to God's offer of His kingdom. God is active in history and in the moral vision and in the ministry of Jesus. God, however, is not yet all in all. It has not yet appeared what we will be. The present given is not enough; the now is heavy with the not yet. God has begun, but in so doing, God summons us to radical openness to the future. The reign of God is a call to adventure, not a stabilization of the status quo. The kingdom of God was no harmless or innocuous flight of idyllic rhetoric in early Christian vocabulary. When we pray "Thy Kingdom come", we are expressing an unsettling, disturbing aspiration.

The supremacy of God demands that we aspire to His kingdom in us, in His church, and over His world.

I. THE KINGDOM OF GOD IN US

"Thy Kingdom Come" is the aspiration to personal adventure, to a life worthy of the Lord. St. Paul puts it well for us when writing to the Colossian Christians, who were being tempted to dilute and compromise their faith in Christ with current religious theories. He said: We have never failed to pray for you, and what we ask God is that through perfect wisdom and spiritual understanding you should reach the fullest knowledge of His will. So you will be able to lead the kind of life which the Lord expects of you, a life acceptable to Him in all its aspects; showing the results in all the good action you do and increasing your knowledge of God.

Walking worthy of the Lord is bearing fruit and growing. The healthy vine will both grow, putting forth new shoots and branches, and bear fruit for its owner. So in the Christian life, growth in spiritual stature and fruitfulness in good works must proceed together. A few verses later on, St. Paul, in referring to Christ, claims "All things were created through Him and for Him". St. Paul states it plainly. The world was made for Christ; this is the ultimate meaning of things for Christian discipleship. The connection is made: Spiritual stature and good works are locked together; faith and action, belief and behavior—the stewardship of all things.

In recent years, numerous studies and surveys have pointed to Church statistics, at least within the Episcopal Church, which indicate ebbing membership, diminishing financial resources, and a slackening commitment to the missionary adventure. I do not intend tonight to analyze and interpret these statistics playing the numbers game, because Paul has said it for us—spiritual stature, good works, stewardship. Look to God in Jesus Christ, and then look to ourselves, to our local congregations, to our diocese, to the national church, and then to the status quo world in which we find ourselves. Are we tithers, are we adhering to responsible and proportionate giving, are we following reasonable guidelines for the support of the diocese? How are we responding to the reign of God, His call to adventure, the adventure of being drawn towards the foundation, the all-encompassing, all-demanding relationship to God in Jesus Christ?

II. THE KINGDOM OF GOD IN THE CHURCH

"Thy Kingdom Come" is the aspiration to an adventurous Church, the Body of Christ, not an ecclesial, historical society, a body of like-minded Christians. The reign of God is His supremacy in and identification with the Church. Paul punctuates this truth for the Colossian Christians: He is the head of the Body, the Church; He is the beginning, the first-born from the dead, that in everything He might be preeminent. When we human beings became endowed with freedom, we became in a real sense free agents. We must be either a partner or a foe of the divine will. The responsibility for human destiny, both the eternal destiny of the individual life and the destiny of mankind on this planet, is in human hands. God's purpose for humankind can now be realized only through the submission of human wills to the divine will. The responsibility is ours. The salvation is of God, working through us. God working through us—that is the call to adventure.

Paul continues: "For in Him, all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through Him to reconcile to Himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of His cross." Here we begin to see a picture of the Church, ruled by God, a living body of which He is the life and animating spirit, where all fullness dwells. Here is an expanding, growing, spacious, limitless organism, incorporating a wonderful diversity of races and cultures, enriching each other's lives by ever-widening circles of fellowship. Here is the called and sent community of adventurers, reaching into the future, loving, saving, reconciling, and making peace.

Christians, of course, have not always been in accord on how they were to carry out God's mission in His world. Recall the sharp and critical disagreement between Peter and Paul as reported in Galatians. These two strong men, so different in background, temperament, experience, and training, incarnated the issue before the church. Would Gentile converts have to become Jews in order to be acceptable Christians? Must Christians keep ancient Jewish customs and rules in order to be received by the Jerusalem fellowship of the church? In this critical struggle, Peter and Paul, backed by their supporters, both had the advantage of their daily companionship with Christ.

They faced each other, and the roots of their disagreement and agreement, so openly that both could go forward adventurously in mutual love and respect into further creative activity.

Last month when the General Convention of the Episcopal Church resolved to allow the inclusion of women in Holy Orders as priests and bishops in the Church of God, and accepted as a first reading a proposed book of common prayer which is more expansive, inclusive, and enriched than the 1928 version, we took an adventurous step into the future, bringing our portion of His body closer to the picture Paul paints for us in Colossians. This is the fellowship that lives triumphantly assured that God in Christ is sufficient for every human need. God reigns now and in the future, and His call is to venture His kingdom.

III. THE KINGDOM OF GOD OVER THE WORLD

"Thy Kingdom Come" is the aspiration held out to, over, and before the adventurous people of God by the Creator and King, Lord of Heaven and Earth. Paul claimed: "He is the image of the invisible God, the first-born of all creation; for in Him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or authorities—all things were created through Him and for Him." As image of the invisible God, the Son is God manifest, the bearer of the might and majesty of God, the revealer and mediator of the creating and sustaining power of the Godhead in relation to the world. And the world for us is primarily the Philadelphia metropolitan area—the geography of our diocese—which contains at least three major cities. For starters: Philadelphia, Chester, Norristown. Add to these, other urban centers: Bristol, Pottstown, Coatesville—and the numerous surrounding satellite communities affected by these cities. The reign of God is the adventurous call: mission to the cities.

I stand today along with a score of bishops of this church to raise our voices once again on behalf of the city and the people of God who are its inhabitants. We speak from a foundation of both our past experience with inadequate solutions as well as our continuing vision of the possibilities of the city and our hopes for it.

We can identify three broad, challenging and necessary areas of work:

First, the church must support the effort to renew the life of its congregations and the empowerment of the people of the city, by enlarging the church's work in the area of public policy. This means adequate and increasing funds, channeled into competent study and understanding of the difficult economic questions that must preoccupy government affairs today.

Second, the church must renew life at the level of its congregations by empowering people to draw upon and mold the intrinsic relationship between their religious commitment and the social, political, and economic forces that shape our cities. The life of the church cannot be defined to mean a place of security away from a society in process of disintegration. The wholeness of the Gospel must be felt and lived by aiding the people in the city—all people of the city—to shape their own school systems, their own workplaces, their own government to serve that wholeness which is the vision of God for His people. We may indeed sing "O Master from the mountain side, make haste to heal these hearts of pain"; but these hearts of pain in the cities will not begin to heal until we all understand what St. Paul meant when he said, "Who is offended and I burn not". Houses are being demolished at far greater rate than they are being built. Where do people lay their heads? Contrary to what we may be led to believe, most people who are on welfare would prefer working for a living, but they are idle because "no man has hired" them. Poverty and political impotence are the brands of the expendables. The wholeness of the Gospel must be felt and lived by aiding the people in the city—all people of the city.

Third, the church must enlarge its financial support of the mission and work of the Black Church so that it, together with other ethnic-based churches, may provide real leadership toward the empowerment of people in redesigning the policies and life of their cities. But how shall they hear without a preacher? Even a cursory study of the black or predominantly black congregations of the Episcopal Church reveals the fact that there is a critical lack of black priests in our church today. The mission and work of the Black church will be severely retarded until we can provide it with well trained and deeply committed, ordained leadership.

In summary, we are talking about the quality and character of human life in the city.

THY KINGDOM COME

We come back to where we began: the Kingdom of God, God's covenant with His people—the adventurous call of renewal in our lives, in His church, and in the city. The psalmist sings: "Righteousness and justice are the foundations of your throne; love and truth go before your face . . . truly, the Lord is our ruler; the Holy One of Israel is our King."

REPORTS TO 193rd CONVENTION

REPORT TO CONVENTION
THE CHRISTMAS FUND

Since the 1975 Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania the trustees of the Christmas Fund have given financial assistance to seventeen persons: nine widows, two daughters of clergymen; and six retired clergymen. Fifteen of these persons are receiving regular quarterly grants and were also given a supplementary sum of money in June against the increasing cost of living. The administrator of the Fund has visited beneficiaries who live in the Diocese. Every effort has been made to establish a cordial relationship. Each of the recipients has reported continuing affiliation with a congregation. For those who are unable to attend services the parish clergy have been faithful in pastoral ministrations.

Further appropriations totaling $12,000 were made to diocesan candidates for the sacred ministry who are enrolled in seminaries. Fifteen theological students were assisted

The total disbursements from the Fund between Nov. 1, 1975 and October 1, 1976 have been $55,875.00.

REPORT TO 193rd DIOCESAN CONVENTION
CATHEDRAL CHAPTER

Canon 18.10 states:

> "The Chapter shall submit to the Convention of the Diocese an annual report, which shall summarize the work of the Cathedral during the preceding year and shall discuss any questions of larger policy which may have arisen."

In the preceding twelve months, the Chapter spent almost all of its time in the development of a retirement community on the cathedral land, a goal approved by the 192nd Diocesan Convention. A status report on the retirement community is provided below in an article that will appear in the November issue of the "Diocesan News."

* * * * *

Plans for a retirement community on the cathedral grounds in Roxborough are making significant progress according to the board of Cathedral Village, Inc., a separate non-profit corporation.

Cathedral Village, Inc. is a joint venture involving St. Mary's-at-the-Cathedral, the Cathedral Chapter, the Leamy Home, and the Houston Foundation (Druim Moir Home).

The retirement community will eventually house about 325 residents in 240 private living units. St. Mary's Church will serve as the chapel to the community. Also on the site will be a community building with dining rooms, a library, recreation facilities, and a completely equipped medical facility. The fees paid by the resident will entitle that person to continuing care even if extensive hospitalization or long term health care is required.

Proposed additions and modifications to existing buildings will provide meeting facilities for the Diocese and serviceable space for worship and other needs of the parish of St. Mary's-at-the-Cathedral. Thus Cathedral Village will share in the life of the Diocese and the parish church.

Over the summer, numerous conversations and meetings were held with Roxborough residents informing them of the various features of the retirement community. Rezoning of the site is proceeding along the lines necessary to meet the various requirements leading to an approval by City Council. A decision on zoning is expected prior to year's end. Construction is scheduled to begin in the spring of 1977 with the first residents entering in mid-1978.

Similar retirement facilities in the Delaware Valley have lengthy waiting lists and persons interested in becoming residents of Cathedral Village are advised to contact the Rev. John D. Clark, rector of St. Mary's-at-the-Cathedral (telephone IV 2-3127) at their earliest convenience.

The 19-person board, chaired by Frederic L. Glover, includes representatives of the several participating organizations, the Bishop's staff, and the Roxborough community.

193rd DIOCESAN CONVENTION

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE

October 1, 1975 to September 30, 1976

At a stated meeting held November 25, 1975, the Standing Committee received a report from the Secretary of Convention confirming the election of the Rev. John R. Norman and the re-election of Alfred W. Putnam, each for a term of five years. The Rev. Ernest A. Harding, D.D. and Alfred W. Putnam were elected President and Secretary, respectively.

The Committee approved the election of three Bishops and seven Bishops Co-adjutor. In conformity with the policy of the Bishop and Standing Committee for several years past, it declined to give consent to the election of three Suffragan Bishops. A sub-committee headed by the Rev. James A. Trimble re-examined this policy as a result of which the following resolution was adopted January 28, 1976:

> WHEREAS, the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Pennsylvania acknowledges the right of every Diocese to elect its own Diocesan Bishop;
> WHEREAS, the Diocesan Bishop should have the right to choose his own Episcopal assistants from Bishops;
> BE IT RESOLVED, that the Standing Committee of this Diocese communicates to the Church its unwillingness to approve the election of Suffragan Bishops and asks the Diocesan Bishops of this Church to seek Episcopal assistance elsewhere.

The Standing Committee arranged for interviews of candidates through its sub-committee chaired by the Rev. William S. Musselman. It continued its practice of having one clergy and one lay member of the Committee interview each candidate, with additional members assisting in the interviews in occasional cases. A number of discussions were held with the Commission on Ministry, whose Chairman, the Rev. Richard T. Hawkins, conferred with the Standing Committee and with its subcommittee from time to time. Mrs. Hope Sellers provided liaison as a member of both the Standing Committee and the Commission on Ministry. Approvals were given as to eight ordinations to the Priesthood, six ordinations to the Diaconate and nine candidates. Several women candidates were commended subject to the understanding of the Standing Committee that action would not be taken on such commendation until affirmative action is taken by General Convention; however, the Standing Committee reiterated its recommendation that General Convention authorize the ordination of women as Priests (which was done by General Convention to be effective in 1977).

The Committee took action in six matters involving trusts and estates, three matters involving leases by parishes of real estate for extended periods of time and seventeen matters involving conveyances of real estate, the majority of which real estate transactions required consideration at more than one meeting. In addition, the Standing Committee was consulted preliminarily with regard to other possible real estate transactions, as to which authorization may be requested in the future.

The Committee continues to be concerned at the delay in construction of the building on West Rittenhouse Square to which the Church House offices are to be moved. Despite diligent efforts by both Mr. John C. Rettew, Controller of the Diocese, and the Chancellor's office, little progress has been made.

In 1972 the Committee circulated a detailed statement of policy with regard to real property which is attached to this report. All persons who are or may be involved with church real estate are urged to consider it.

The Committee filled a vacancy in the office of the Treasurer and approved nominations to various organizations related to the Diocese, such as Episcopal Community Services, The Houston Foundation, The Cathedral Chapter and the Commission on Ministry. At the Bishop's request it considered a case of restoration to the Priesthood.

The Bishop consulted the Committee with regard to various matters including the status of certain non-stipendiary clergy; various appointments and other personnel matters; visits with seminarians; various ecumenical matters and sundry administrative questions. An informal meeting was held with the Diocesan staff and others at the Episcopal Academy to consider various questions relating to the ordination of women as Priests. The Committee received correspondence from a number of other Dioceses with regard to proposed canonical changes which were considered at the General Convention. In some matters it responded to such recommendations after consultation with the Bishop and informed the Diocesan Deputies of its views. It reviewed the proceedings at the General Convention with Bishops Ogilby and Mosley and several of the Diocesan Deputies.

The Standing Committee considered the budget for the Episcopal Function of the Program, Budget of the Diocese for 1977 and related financial matters.

The Standing Committee continues to be available for all matters within its area of responsibility. It normally meets on the fourth Wednesday of each month at 1:30 P.M. in the Diocesan offices, although occasionally other dates for the monthly meetings are fixed. Advance notice is requested from persons who wish to appear before the Standing Committee on particular matters in order to facilitate the scheduling of Committee business. Open discussion with attendance of interested persons facilitated the deliberations of the Committee in several matters during the past year.

Respectfully submitted,

DIOCESAN REAL PROPERTY—POLICY I

"All things come of thee, O Lord, and of thine own have we given thee" (I Chronicles 29.14). This is where any consideration of what the Church is to do with what it has must begin. We are stewards over what has been entrusted to us by God. And as St. Paul has written (I Corinthians 4.2) "The one thing required of the man in charge (the steward) is that he be faithful to his master". (Today's English Version.)

The Property then which we hold as a Church is one of the tools, one of the resources entrusted to our care to be used to carry out the will of Our Master in His World. For its appropriate and efficient and productive use, we are held accountable.

The Greek word normally translated "stewards" in the New Testament is the word oikonomos from which we get our word "economy" and is made up of two words "house" and "law" and carries with it the meaning of the administration or management of the household. The Hebrew phrase translated "steward" in the Old Testament is literally "the man over the house". What is basically involved here is obedience to a master, the administration of what belongs to him for his purposes. This calls to mind the story which Jesus tells of the Three Servants (Matthew 25.14ff//Luke 19.11ff) (which we used to call the Parable of the Talents). The master rewards two of the servants who have put the money to work by saying, "Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful in managing small amounts, so I will put you in charge of large amounts. Come on in and share my happiness." (Today's English Version.)

In other words stewardship involves mission. We are to use the Lord's things for the Lord's purposes. Therefore, any policy concerning the use or disposition of property by the church is contingent upon how the particular community of the people of God see and accept that mission.

One way of asking the question "What does God will in our time?" is to ask "For what does the Church exist? What is its purpose?" The Statement of Purpose of the Diocese of Pennsylvania is a current attempt to put this into words. This Statement speaks of the nurturing and witnessing ministry of Christ.

From this can be drawn two basic criteria which can be used to guide decisions to be made about the disposition of Church property. The first of these is, What part does this building play in the nurturing of the people of God, and to what extent is it involved in this function? Does it assist or hinder the nurturing of the people of God? Is its use the most efficient way in which this nurturing can be done. The same set of questions can be asked of the witnessing ministry of Christ which must include the caring of the people of God for the community in which they find themselves.

There would be no contradiction to using church property for any socially desirable usage whatsoever, i.e. employment office, VD clinic, pre-natal clinic, day school, training center for all sorts of skills, etc., etc. "Counselling" would seem to be a subsection of "involvement", i.e. one kind of involvement and could be practiced either in church property or away from it as a part of missionary outreach.

"Missionary outreach"—here again home folk with money and energy for outreach are essential. Energy is probably more important than money—but people-oriented rather than building. Buildings can be important when used to back up the outreach which in effect brings others into the buildings for worship, education, fellowship or whatever. This sort of outreach can start as near at hand as one's own family.

PRIORITIES WITHIN PURPOSE

An attempt will be made by the Diocese to identify parish and diocesan properties, which, for whatever reason, do not seem to contribute adequately, nor have the potential to contribute adequately to the Diocesan purpose. Planning can then be undertaken as to the best course of action thereafter.

Conversely, some attempt will also be made to identify geographies wherein property should be located, but is not. Planning from this can then proceed.

Policy for Church Property

Usage

Every effort should be made to maximize the usage of church properties both by members and others. Seven day usage should be an objective. Usage should always be by invitation (either at a fee or free) from responsible members of the congregation, i.e. rector or vestry. Such usage should be discussed with and known to the congregational membership, we hope, encouraged and originated by them.

Divestiture of Property

In such consideration, several thoughts should be weighed:

1. The property exists because of the generosity of others.
2. The property exists as a servant to the people, not vice versa.
3. If the property exhausts the people, best get rid of the property.
4. Property without people is meaningless except as a monument.
5. Perhaps other community people can make better usage of the property.
6. Perhaps diocesan usage or ownership can be helpful to the community.
7. Avoid a deterioration of community through sale to inappropriate new owner.
8. Once gone, the property will not return—consider the future potential of the community and its needs.
9. Will the proceeds of sale be more helpful to God's work than was the property? If so, how? Some hard answers should be developed on this in advance of sale.

Statement of Purpose of the Diocese of Pennsylvania

(Adopted by Convention in 1972)

"God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself"

"There is only one ministry and it is Christ's ministry. The Church, as the Body of Christ, exists to exercise that ministry to the Glory of God the Father and in loving concern for all men everywhere.

"Having accepted Jesus Christ as our Lord and Saviour, and empowered by the Holy Spirit, we are committed to the work of His Church by:

"Proclaiming the Gospel through preaching, sacramental acts, worship and education;

"Witnessing to the Gospel by applying it to social problems in our contemporary society by effective involvement, by counselling those in need, and by missionary outreach;

"Governing the Diocese in such a manner as to facilitate the discharge of our responsibilities both to the Episcopal Church in the United States of America and to the members of this Church within the bounds of the Diocese."

Property as it relates to Church Purpose

"Proclaiming the Gospel through preaching, sacramental acts, worship and education;"

This has been a recognized role of the Christian Church throughout history. Various architectural expressions of this have evolved, virtually all of which are in essence meeting halls designed for preaching, sacramental acts and worship. Often the "Glory of God" has been a primary and overwhelming consideration in the design. Such buildings are peculiarly unsuited for other usage, including education. In consideration of the educational aspect, many parishes have also built "parish houses" including school rooms and halls for larger groups. These buildings are more flexible but are best suited to educational usage. Thus the church edifice and parish hall complex really do satisfy the first cluster of purposes—but—there is much to be desired in both the frequency and intensity of usage. Of course this goes back to the problem that, historically at least, we have had a one day per week, i.e. Sunday function. Even worse than that, the usage of a cemetery, i.e. once in a lifetime, is pretty tough to argue for. Theology probably becomes a problem here.

"Witnessing to the Gospel by applying it to social problems in our contemporary society by effective involvement, by counselling those in need, and by missionary outreach."

"Effective involvement" would appear to have relevance to property only if there are church people to serve as "hosts" to either other members or non-members. If there are no home people to serve as "hosts" and stewards, it's difficult to imagine how the property could have significance even if used. This function of involvement is quite open to imaginative implementation, but only if there are host people with money and energy enough to ask in the community. It would seem to avail little to have the property used unless there is a role for the people of the church to serve as host.

Acquisition of Property

These thoughts, among others, should be weighed:

1. Do not mortgage the future without very good reason.
2. Do not acquire new if the old will do.
3. Do not acquire new if the old is not fully utilized.
4. Is there an alternative to purchase, i.e. rent, borrow facilities, innovative usage of other community resources?
5. Are you living up to your present responsibilities before you increase them?
6. Will this increase or diminish your outreach potential?
   Will this increase or diminish your giving to the Diocese?
   Will this increase or diminish your ability to pay adequately the rector and staff if any?
7. Will this increase your capacity to nurture the local congregation?

RECTORIES

(for buy or sell—consideration)

Should the rector own his own home and choose its location? If so, perhaps other usage of the rectory is in order.

BURIAL GROUNDS

With greatly increased living population, should not the deceased occupy as little space as decently can be arranged, i.e. we urge the consideration of a columbarium.

CHURCH EDIFICES

If new ones are to be built, should not more stress be placed upon adaptability for other usages, primarily for other sorts of large meetings or for usage as theatre. How about vice versa—using other sorts of meeting halls, including theatres for church worship services.

PARISH HOUSES

In building new ones or remodeling old, make as flexible as possible and probably the best other usage is as school—here again why not vice versa using schools on Sunday for church purposes.

CHURCH GROUNDS

Sometimes can be regarded as a "sound financial investment" which will be held for future use or sale. More thought toward other usage—outdoor concerts, community bazaars, etc.

THIS IS HOW WE HAVE USED THESE TERMS:

"Church"—The Episcopal Church, consisting of the National Organization, Diocesan organization, Parish organization, individual members, i.e. communicants.

"Church edifice"—the physical building, normally the place of worship.

"Parish house"—building often near church edifice, usually contains classrooms, offices, etc.

"Rectory"—residence building.

"Cemetery"—burial ground, may or may not be near church edifice.

"Church grounds"—plot on which church edifice and other buildings are located.

In the Diocese of Pennsylvania, we have three classifications of parishes: each has baptized and communicant membership. They are:

Parishes
Aided Parishes
Mission Parishes.

CAN THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH COME ALIVE AGAIN IN THE INNER CITY?

The Fairmount Team Ministry says YES!

THE FAIRMOUNT TEAM MINISTRY includes these congregations and their staff:

St. Nathanael's, B and Allegheny

Christ Church and St. Ambrose, 6th and Venango

St. Barnabas', 3rd and Dauphin

Free Church of St. John, Emerald and Elkhart

St. Luke's, B and Huntingdon

We are a part of COAC; we receive some support from the Diocesan Budget, Program Area #2; we are also helped by St. Philip-in-the-Fields, Oreland, and St. David's, Radnor. For all your support we say thank you. Some of our work is new (a Spanish language ministry, a new church school curriculum with emphasis on black history and the Bible), but much of it is traditional. Let us share with you a description of the Team Ministry by one of our dedicated lay leaders, Miss Anna Fish.

SHOUT IT FROM THE HOUSE TOPS!

When you witness to the Word by serving other people, you will see the Spirit move again.

While we were yet in our mother's womb, God had a plan for us. On the road to Damascus, a traveller met his Messiah. Ananias knew only this man's evil reputation, but Jesus knew that this was His own chosen vessel, the apostle to the Gentiles.

The Pauline ministry was to include men and women who were multi-racial, multi-lingual, of diverse gifts, skills, trades, educational levels and social positions. That is like our mission field in Kensington and Franklinville. We are here for all the people in our communities.

In the Fairmount Team we have a group of priests, a deacon, and lay staff members who meet weekly. They have pooled their talents and skills better to serve the people of our communities.

The Fairmount Team Ministry (Team Council) meets monthly with lay delegates from each of the participating congregations. Worship services, study groups, and events are planned, to which all members of the combined Missions are invited.

In our neighborhoods there is a great need for the hearing and doing of the Word: children to be taught, teenagers, adults, backsliders to be helped, the lonely elderly, physically unable to worship with us to be visited. As in Jerusalem, so also are we in need of financial help.

Man sees the outward, God the potentials. From those who are forgiven much, the Holy Spirit will raise up great ministers, evangelists and laborers.

WHO WE ARE AND WHAT WE HOPE TO DO:

We are five congregations who have joined together to help each other. We are united by a common desire to keep the witness of the Episcopal Church alive in our part of Philadelphia through the development of new ministries and outreach and by sharing our skills and resources. We see our mission in these main areas:

Christian Education
Evangelism
Stewardship
Support for Community Organizations
Inter-parish cooperation
Fellowship

By carrying out this mission we hope to witness to the larger Church that Episcopal congregations in a given area can work creatively together. This is also our way of supporting the developing mission strategy of our Diocese.

Report to the 193rd Convention

The Committee to promote the cause of—and to Plan for the Ordination of Women to the Priesthood

The Diocesan Committee to Promote the Ordination of Women comprises five task forces; this report follows that model.

Communications

In the fall of 1975, two persons were brought onto the Committee to develop a list of active and supportive persons to act as a pipeline for information and requests between the parishes and the Committee. This group has met regularly through the year and has developed a life and agenda of its own. The parent committee acts as a resource center to the network.

Political Action

On the Diocesan level, this task force presented to the 192nd Convention of the Diocese a resolution memorializing General Convention 1976 to interpret the canons governing ordination as being equally applicable to women and men. The resolution passed, and went on to Convention and became, with others, the model for the resolution passed in Minneapolis in September. Nationally, the Committee has supported substantially the work of the National Coalition for Women's Ordination to the Priesthood and Episcopacy, a group which since early 1975 has worked to provide leadership toward orderly change which would allow women to be ordained priests in the Church in a regular manner.

Support of the Women Priests

This function has continued, in an attempt to keep abreast of the situation surrounding the already-ordained women. We were in contact with Women's Ordination Now (WON) and with the Ad Hoc Community.

Special Events

This task force, with the education group, initiated a new aspect of Committee life. John Leser and Bob Snyder designed a program which, advertised through diocesan mailings, indicated the Committee's willingness to meet and discuss ordination with groups in the parishes. Ten visits were made between March and the end of May, each one "tailor-made" to the specifications given by the rectors of the parishes.

Education

The Committee has published in book form the selected and annotated bibliography compiled by Patricia A. Kendall early in 1976. Her material, originally circulated through the Diocesan mailing, was gathered into a handsome fifty-seven page volume in time to be a resource at the General Convention in September. The Committee is grateful to Pat for her thorough and scholarly effort on our behalf.

Looking ahead, it was agreed in conversation with the Bishop that a great deal is left to be done regarding reconciliation with persons who are in pain over this issue, and regarding education in the parishes and eventual placement of women priests into jobs. The Committee has accepted the task of devising methods of attempting to come to grips with these issues, and will report to Diocesan Council later in the year.

Respectfully submitted,

COAC TASK FORCE
CHURCH WITHOUT WALLS

A resolution regarding the life and work of the Church Without Walls was passed by the Task Force at its October meeting and is included here for information of the Convention Deputies.

WHEREAS, The Church Without Walls, a mission of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, is a member of the Coalition of Aided Congregations, and

WHEREAS, the members of the Task Force of the Coalition, through its peer visitation program and personal contacts with members of the Church Without Walls, are thoroughly familiar with what it is and what it does, and

WHEREAS, the Task Force believes that the Church Without Walls makes a substantial contribution to the life of the Diocese through the work of its members and by offering an alternative form of organization for the worship of God

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Task Force and the other members of the Coalition of Aided Congregations jointly affirm and support the Church Without Walls as a significant witness and an important part of the life of the Coalition and of the Diocese of Pennvania.

The full report of the COAC Task Force follows.

OBJECTIVES

To determine needs of congregations, particularly in regard to ordained ministry and the utilization of real property.

To establish criteria and priorities for Christ's mission as interpreted by member-congregations of the Coalition.

To determine financial subsidies and occasional grants which may be awarded to the congregations from diocesan monies, either from the annual operational budget, endowment funds or other resources made available to the Coalition.

To assist Bishop and staff in their responsibilities for gaining appropriate support for congregations of the Coalition from the operational budget of the diocese.

To identify and tap financial and other resources beyond the diocesan mission budget.

To provide moral as well as financial support to member congregations which are experiencing problems, particularly when there is no clergy person present.

STRATEGIES

In an effort to reach the above objectives, COAC employs the following Strategies:

Peer visitations to member-congregations

Self evaluations by member-congregations

Periodic reports from member-congregations

Utilization of other diocesan resources
(Consultant Network, Educational Resources Team, etc.)

Monthly open meetings of the elected Task Force

Annual Assembly with representation from all member-congregations

Support and participation in Deanery and Diocesan programs

Use of standard budget form reflecting current statistics, projections for the coming year and program descriptions

Property evaluations outlining maintenance and repair projects for seven years

Serve as an agent of communications between the several congregations of the Coalition and other resources in the diocese

Demonstrate new programs and styles of out-reach ministry that merit and command additional resources of the diocese

Help to arrange and encourage partner relationships where evidence shows congregations (both independent and aided) are doing their jobs as members of the larger church

Identification of "troubled" congregations with resultant peer visitations and recommendations of appropriate action

APPORTIONING RESOURCES

COAC presents an unusual situation of aided congregations determining their own use of resources within the constraints of the diocesan mission budget. An elected Task Force makes the final determination of subsidies to COAC members based on adopted guidelines and criteria for mission and ministry.

Not all COAC congregations receive financial aid, being self supporting but coming under the canonical category of missions. Similarly, not all COAC congregations are slated to become self supporting, nor should they be. This is not a sign of weakness or of not being viable. Many congregations of the Coalition are strong in program and ministry and THE BETTER THEY DO IT THE MORE MONEY IT MAY COST THE CHURCH.

REPORT OF THE CHURCH FOUNDATION

To the Diocesan Convention, October 22 and 23, 1976

DELEGATES:

Once again we are refraining from having one of our members address the Convention. To simplify the agenda, this is our report to you.

NOMINATIONS:

Every year the 3-year terms of five of our members expire. We like to keep turnover at a minimum, and to keep continuity of service working for us. Therefore we asked the Nominating Committee to name our five incumbents, which they did. They also supplied a sixth name. Other nominees may be certified to us by the Convention, we believe. The election will be held at the Annual Meeting of The Church Foundation on Wednesday, October 27th.

INVESTMENTS:

At the September 3rd appraisal the assets of the Consolidated Fund reached a new high for all time at $15,381,000.

On the same date the Unit Value of the fund had risen to $22.25, within striking distance of its all-time high of $22.98.

Latest annual income was close to its peak, being $1.15 per unit. In the year ending September 3rd, the Consolidated Fund distributed $718,106.32 in gross income to the Diocese, its churches, and organizations.

INSURANCE:

Several churches, not previously insured with The Church Insurance Company, have joined one of the four package policies.

Our Insurance Committee has cooperated with the Controller of the Diocese in attempting a survey of the "minor" coverages: Compensation, Fidelity Bond, Automobile Non-Ownership Liability, Boiler, and Use and Occupancy. Please take these coverages seriously. Large losses can occur if they are neglected.

REAL ESTATE:

We cooperated in the sale of the Denbigh Conference Center to the Booth School for $825,000, netting $771,491. Except for $58,000 remitted to the Diocese for specific purposes, we hold the balance invested. Eventual disposition of $100,000 principal, and of the income from the remainder of the Fund, were planned a year ago by the Council and the Standing Committee.

FINALLY:

We are here to serve the Diocese and its Churches. Our telephone is 585-5577, or write:

REPORT TO 193rd CONVENTION
MISSION STRATEGY COMMITTEE

In its report to the last Convention, the MSC indicated that it had developed goals in four specific areas which had been reviewed with and approved by Council in the Fall of 1975. These four goals were as follows:

1. Monitoring the situation of congregations.
2. Clarifying congregational purpose and expectations.
3. Supporting congregational development.
4. Clarifying the Bishop's role.

We have found that our work during the past year has cut across all four of these goal areas.

The MSC, working together with the Bishop's staff, has developed a proposal for a mission strategy in South Philadelphia. This will involve nine congregations. All of them have been invited to participate in creating a Diocesan strategy for the area and the Committee is now joining with those congregations that have accepted to design an overall South Philadelphia program that may help the Diocese achieve its stated goals and objectives there. The Bishop has appointed the Reverend Donald T. Graff as part-time staff member to assist in this work. This development has been written up in the September edition of the Pennsylvania Diocesan News.

As we take these first steps toward the creation of a Diocesan strategy in South Philadelphia, it is important to note that our concern is not just for that area but for the whole Diocese of Pennsylvania. But because the whole Diocese is too much to encompass at once, we believe that time and resources should be temporarily focused on one area at a time. We hope all of us will learn from the South Philadelphia efforts and be able to draw conclusions, both positive and negative, which will be useful in other regions of the Diocese.

During the year, the MSC arranged to have the Bishop's Cabinet set aside three separate sessions for an indepth consideration of diocesan mission strategy. These meetings led to a categorization of those congregations facing survival problems, thus enabling Diocesan staff to monitor those situations which are critical. In addition, the Cabinet has clearly given Bishop Mosley a stronger mandate to seek quicker and clearer decisions on the part of the Diocese vis a vis the health of the congregations.

One of the committee's goals was to develop a strategy for identifying areas of potential for new congregations. This responsibility has been assumed by the Reverend William Fischler and he is gathering together a sub-committee to assist him with this task.

Another committee concern has been that of funding congregational development. We have analyzed the present methods of funding, we are currently evaluating their effectiveness, and we have been seeking to develop a way to uncover additional sources of monies strengthening the mission of the Church.

A major task has been to develop and focus resources enabling the Bishop and his staff to define more clearly its role in the strengthening of congregations, to sort out the key issues, and to develop practical steps in support of Bishop Ogilby's role as "overseer".

Finally, we have identified three possible consultants to work with Bishop Ogilby so that he might further clarify his responsibility for the strengthening of local congregations. They have been interviewed by the Bishop and he is in the process of selecting one to work closely with him for this purpose.

The following persons have been active participants in the work of the committee: R. C. Allen, Chairman; Webster Christman; the Reverend William J. Fischler; the Reverend Donald T. Graff; the Reverend Richard Hicks, Jr.; the Reverend Alice B. Mann; Mrs. Nellie Parker; Ms. Nancy Winter. Bishop Mosley has been staff advisor. Newcomers to the committee as of this Fall are the Reverend James F. McKendrick, Jr. and Mrs. George (Helen) White.

Respectfully submitted,
ROBERT C. ALLEN, Chairman

Treasurer's Report: PHILIP C. HOWSE

First, I would like to thank the Bishop for his confidence in appointing me to succeed Robert C. Fernley as Treasurer of the Diocese; and also the Standing Committee for confirming that appointment. I would also like to thank the Convention for electing me to this position. I will serve the Diocese in this capacity to the best of my ability.

The financial report is in your packet as item #76-9. I do not intend to review that report in detail. As you can see, the Diocese is about where we would expect it to be financially as of September 30. We anticipate that our expenses will be approximately $7,000.00 over budget at year end; but we also anticipate that the budget will be balanced. I will be happy to try to answer any specific questions you may have.

You will be asked later to approve the 1977 Diocesan Budget. This is a progressive, even ambitious budget. I ask each parish and mission to give serious and prayerful consideration to the guideline amount you have been asked to pledge as a minimum to the work of the Lord through the Diocese of Pennsylvania. Full acceptance of the guidelines would fund the budget.

To me, the work of the Stewardship Committee is some of the most noteworthy now going on in the Diocese. The Bishop will report later in the Convention on the work of the Committee and the Stewardship Consultant Program that it has developed. It is sufficient for the Treasurer to say that I am very excited about the profound effect we expect this program to have on the entire corporate life of the Diocese, including our financial well-being.

DEPUTIES TO 193rd DIOCESAN CONVENTION

THE REV. JOHN F. HARDWICK, Assistant Secretary of Convention

Concerning: BUSINESS OF LAST CONVENTION LEFT UNFINISHED

1. Referral of Resolution R-19 to consideration by Diocesan Council.
(Copy of R-19, 192nd Diocesan Convention, attached)

This resolution was considered and adopted by Diocesan Council at its meeting, November 15, 1975.

A copy was sent to the Secretary of the General Convention.

Resolutions on this matter were considered and voted down by the House of Bishops at the 63rd General Convention, Minneapolis, Minnesota, September, 1976.

2. Congregation of the Church-Without-Walls' Seat in Convention

The 192nd Convention (October, 1975) passed a motion:

> that Convention refer the question of this Congregation's conformity to the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese to the Committee on Constitution and Canons, with the request that such Committee advise the Deputies to the next Convention on the matter before deputies from the congregation of the Church-Without-Walls are seated in the next Convention

Since Canon 11 "Of the Establishment and Organization of Missions" of the Canons of the Diocese of Pennsylvania places the responsibility for approval of such applications in Diocesan Council, and since Diocesan Council has approved the application of the Church-Without-Walls, at its meeting of October 15, 1971, the report of the Committee on Constitution and Canons—called for by action of Diocesan Convention —was delivered to the Diocesan Council at its meeting, May 15, 1976.

In that report, the Committee on Constitution and Canons stated:

> (1.) That the Committee has no proof that the Congregation of the Church-Without-Walls has failed to meet any of the requirements of the Constitution and Canons with respect to Missions;
> (2). That the Committee's Report to Bishop DeWitt, October 7, 1971, dealing with requirements for creation of the congregation of the Church-Without-Walls as a new mission was reviewed and found to be sound; > and that no question seemed to be raised regarding the initial establishment of the Church-Without Walls.

Diocesan Council, acting upon the report of the Committee on Constitution and Canons, reaffirmed that the Congregation known as the Church-Without-Walls is entitled to a seat in Convention.

EXHIBIT 14 (R-19)

WHEREAS we observe throughout the Church a growing number of ecumenical members of congregations of different Christian traditions in order to magnify and make more effective the preaching of the Gospel; and

WHEREAS in our own Diocese we have seen the vitality of one such model of ecumenical merging in the congregations of Calvary United Presbyterian Church and St. Paul's Episcopal Church under the full-time leadership of the Reverend Robert Greer who serves under the ecclesiastical authority of our Bishop and is accountable to him;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: that this 192nd Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania memorialize the 1975 General Convention meeting in Minneapolis, Minnesota, to give serious consideration to extending the privilege of vote to any minister ordained in a church not in communion with this church who is rendering active full-time service, with the sanction of and under a plan approved by the Ecclesiastical Authority, as the settled minister of a congregation consisting of members of a parish within a Diocese and those of any such other church.

DEPUTIES TO 193rd DIOCESAN CONVENTION

THE RT. REV. LYMAN C. OGILBY

Concerning: BISHOP'S STAFF: ADMINISTRATIVE and PROGRAM RESPONSIBILITIES AND SALARIES, 1976 (as described in the Program-Budget, 1976

The Episcopal Function

This function details the major areas in which the Diocesan Bishop, the Rt. Rev. Lyman C. Ogilby, carries out his ministry and responsibilities. His basic salary for 1976, including housing is $35,000; expense, pension and medical/life insurance premiums are in addition to this. Mrs. Jacquelyn Johnson is the Bishop's secretary; she is assisted by Miss Peggy Poglitsch, who also serves as secretary to the Assistant Bishop, the Rt. Rev. J. Brooke Mosley. Providing Staff assistance to the Bishop, functioning as Associate Registrar and as Compiler and Editor of the Journal of the Diocese, is Mrs. Edwin Larkin. The compensation and social security cost of the secretarial and Staff assistance to the Bishops is $31,750 for 1976.

Bishop Ogilby is assisted in carrying out the objectives of this function by the Rt. Rev. J. Brooke Mosley, Assistant Bishop. Bishop Mosley shares the Visitation and Confirmation schedules, and also functions as a member of the Bishop's Staff. He is Chairman of the Coalition of Aided Congregations and relates, as Staff person, to the Mission Strategy Committee, the Hunger Committee, the Ecumenical Committee, the Bicentennial Committee. He also carries out special assignments at the request of Bishop Ogilby. His basic salary, including housing, for 1976 is $26,000; expense account, pension and medical/life insurance premiums are in addition to this.

In the activity of this function concerning applicants, postulants and candidates for ordination, Bishop Ogilby is assisted by the Rev. John F. Hardwick, who manages the process of application and provides counseling and administrative assistance to those who are applying and those preparing for ordination. He also acts as consultant to the Commission on Ministry; and is the coordinator of the Alternate Education Program for Mission and Ministry, a program of theological education available to persons already involved in a career who are seeking ordination.

In his responsibility for the Deployment of the Clergy, Bishop Ogilby is assisted by Mr. George H. Soule, who is carrying out this goal, and provides extensive career counseling.

All members of the Staff are at the Bishop's call, and are asked to assist him in his responsibilities in a wide variety of ways. Goal 6, under the Episcopal Function (see Program-Budget for 1975) and the amount of money allocated to that goal, signify the basic understanding that two-fifths of the time of the members of the Bishop's Staff is available to the Bishop for his purposes.

The Administrative Function

Mr. John C. Rettew, Financial and Business Manager, has the primary responsibility for the coordination and administration of this function, including the operation of the Diocesan Office. He serves as Staff person for a number of committees, including the Finance and Property Committee, Stewardship Committee, Cathedral Chapter, Commission on Clergy Salaries and Pensions. His salary is $16,500, plus $895.00 for social security. The Treasurer's Office—included in this function and headed by Mr. Robert C. Fernley until September 30, 1976 and since then by Mr. Philip C. Howse, Treasurer of the Diocese —is also managed by Mr. Rettew.

Secretarial assistance for Mr. Rettew is provided by Miss Rosemary Stevenson. Detailing, accounting, bookkeeping and insurance services in the Treasurer's Office are provided by Mr. Edward Mergel and Mrs. Jesse Carney. The cost of the secretarial assistance and supportive services is $32,900 for 1976.

As of September 8, 1976 Mrs. Olga Madden has been the Receptionist, taking over this responsibility from Mr. Russell Filbey, who also is responsible for the printing and mailing operations. In this latter task, he is assisted by Miss Marietta Hilsee. The cost of these services is $11,500 for 1976.

Mr. Soule, Mr. Rettew and Father Hardwick assist the Bishop and Diocesan Council at its meetings and in the follow-up of its actions. Each is also related to one or more Diocesan Council committees, as Staff. Mrs. Louis DeV. Day, a member of the Diocesan Council from the Wissahickon Deanery, is the Coordinator for Diocesan Council, and receives a very modest remuneration for her work.

The Rev. John F. Hardwick, as Assistant Secretary of Diocesan Convention, acts as Staff liaison to the Diocesan Convention and to the Diocesan Convention Committee.

The Program Function

All members of the Bishop's Staff have staff responsibilities throughout the six program areas of the Program Function, as assigned by the Bishop.

The total compensation and social security cost of this secretarial assistance in the Program Function is $24,800 for 1976.

Mrs. John W. Forrester, President of the Episcopal Churchwomen, functions also as a member of the Bishop's Staff, participating in Staff meetings and attending meetings of Diocesan Council. She is non-salaried. Mrs. John D. Clark, Executive Secretary, Episcopal Churchwomen, assists Mrs. Forrester, and is paid by the Episcopal Churchwomen.

DEPUTIES TO 193rd DIOCESAN CONVENTION

THE RT. REV. LYMAN C. OGILBY, Bishop of Pennsylvania

Concerning: REPORT ON GOALS 5 AND 9 OF THE EPISCOPAL FUNCTION AND OTHER STATISTICAL DATA CONCERNING THE DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA

It is my pleasure to inform you that 1,103 persons were confirmed in this Diocese since the last Diocesan Convention. This compares with 1,902 confirmed in the 12-month period, 1974–1975. The Bishops participating in these Confirmations were: The Rt. Rev. Lyman C. Ogilby, the Rt. Rev. J. Brooke Mosley, and the Rt. Rev. Andrew Y. Y. Tsu.

In addition, 111 people were received into the Church from other communions. This compares to 118 reported at the last Convention.

Six persons were ordained Deacon—during this time, 2 were ordained Priest.

You may be interested in some other general statistics gathered from the parochial reports of the Congregations of the Diocese, reflecting figures for the year 1975.

Baptized Members: Down to 81,750 from 87,927 reported in 1974. This is a decrease of 6,177 or about 7%, and comes after a slight increase in 1974 from what was a new low in 1972 of 87,631.

Average Sunday Attendance: (based on four key Sundays). A continuation of the declining trend: 33,231, down 685 or about 2% from the 1974 figure of 33,916.

Church School Enrollment: Down to 14,537 from a 1974 figure of 19,271. This is a drop of 4,734 or 24%. This comes after 1974 had recorded a substantial increase of 3,143 or 19% over 1973.

Communicants: 65,595; down from the 1974 total of 68,230, a decrease of 2,635 or almost 4%.

Pledging Households: 21,386; down from the 1974 figure of 22,228, a decrease of 842 or almost 4%. The amount contributed per household per week was $3.12; this is an increase from the 1974 figure of $2.87.

Other Financial Facts: The total receipts of Congregations in 1975 amounted to $12,079,034, an increase of $566,490 or 4% over the 1974 figure of $11,512,544. Congregations recorded a total of $959,248 given to the Diocese and General Church Programs outside the Congregations. This represents an increase of $18,609 or about 2% over the 1974 figure of $940,639. $435,808 was recorded as being given to other "outside" programs, a decrease of $40,228 or almost 8½% from the figure of $476,036 in 1974.

The total of the figures in these two "outside" categories for 1975 is $1,395,056 or 11½% of the total receipts. This compares with a 1974 total of $1,416,675, which was 12% of the total receipts of that year.

ACTIONS OF THE 65th GENERAL CONVENTION CONCERNING THE ORDINATION OF WOMEN

1. The canonical change which was voted by both houses is as follows. It becomes effective January 1, 1977.

   "RESOLVED, that a new Section 1, of Title III, Canon 9, be adopted, with renumbering of the present Section 1 and following, the said Section 1 to read as follows:

   "Section 1. The provision of these Canons for the admission of postulants and candidates, and for the ordination to these orders, Bishops, Priests and Deacons, shall be equally applicable to men and women".

2. On the question of women ordained in Philadelphia, July 29, 1974, and Washington, September 7, 1975, the House of Bishops adopted the enclosed Report from the House of Bishops Committee on Theology. Our Standing Committee adopted this same report at its meeting on Wednesday, September 29, 1976.

THE HOUSE OF BISHOPS COMMITTEE ON THEOLOGY

ISSUES RELATING TO THE ORDINATION SERVICES IN PHILADELPHIA AND WASHINGTON AND TO THE WOMEN WHO THERE RECEIVED THE LAYING ON OF HANDS FOR PRIESTHOOD

"The Committee on Theology of the House of Bishops, acting in response to a request from a number of bishops, offers the following theological guidance respecting the future status of women who underwent priesthood ordination rites in Philadelphia on July 29, 1974, and in Washington on September 7, 1975:

"Since the 1976 General Convention has, by legislative action, made clear that it is now the intent of the Episcopal Church as an ecclesial community to authorize the ordination of women to the priesthood and to episcopal orders, we believe that a completion of the ritual acts performed in Philadelphia/Washington becomes possible.

"Prerequisite to any act of completion, however, would be a faithful carrying-out of those canonical procedures required for ordination within the respective dioceses.

"Thereafter either of two courses become possible.

"Each of them seek to celebrate the intent of what was done in Philadelphia/Washington. Each involves a liturgical incorporation of what was done on those two occasions into the ongoing life of the Episcopal Church by supplying the intention of the ecclesial community to the ritual acts already performed.

"1. One course would involve a public event, conducted by the appropriate diocesan bishop, which recognizes the sacramental elements found in the Philadelphia/Washington services and incorporates those elements into the now-stated intention of the Church to ordain women to the presbyterate. The proper context of the Philadelphia/Washington service now provided by the newly legislated ecclesial intention, that earlier rite could be sacramentally completed and the person canonically commissioned to function as a priest in the Episcopal Church without the necessity for an additional laying on of hands.

"Such a public act of 'completion' should, we believe, be eucharistic and done in the presence of a representative diocesan assembly. It should also include an opportunity for the ordinand to declare her loyalty to the doctrine, discipline, and worship of the Church afresh.

"2. An alternative course, and one which commends itself as decidedly preferably to a majority on our Committee for pastoral reasons and for its reconciling power is 'conditional ordination'.

"Conditional ordination would recognize that something of extraordinary significance did indeed occur at Philadelphia/Washington. But it would also affirm that a fundamental reason for our Church's concern about ordinations is the desire to assure both the ordinand and the people of the Church that the ordained person is an authorized channel for divine grace. Conditional ordination would demonstrate both the ordinand's and the diocese's concern for those in the Church who have honest doubts about the validity or regularity of the Philadelphia/Washington 'ordinations'. Whether those doubts be justified or not, the matter of assurance is vital and is a proper pastoral concern of the whole Church. Holy Scripture bids every Christian to care about the qualms of the weaker brethren, and the example of St. Paul indicates that such care is a special responsibility for anyone in a pastoral office. Since the matter under consideration is the validity of the priestly office, such pastoral sensitivity seems particularly appropriate.

"Since the Minnesota Convention has approved women's ordination to the priesthood, 'reconciliation' will be desperately needed, a reconciliation effected by the Church and the individuals involved. Through conditional ordination, the Church would be seeking reconciliation by the decision to ordain women. In addition, the Church-at-large would be officially sharing as an ecclesial community in an act from which she was excluded in Philadelphia/Washington. The participation of the individual ordinands in conditional ordination would be an impressive and healing contribution to the needed reconciliation.

"The willingness of all parties to take this conditional ordination route might also significantly assist the role of the Episcopal Church in the ecumenical movement. It will prevent unnecessary complications in future ecumenical conversations, since it would leave no room for doubt that these women ordinands are indeed ordained priests.

"Conditional ordination would also respect the integrity of Christians holding divergent views of the Philadelphia/Washington actions; refrain from passing judgment on diverse convictions honestly and strongly held; and allow the Lord to determine matters beyond our capacity or desire to judge."

DEPUTIES TO 193rd DIOCESAN CONVENTION

THE REV. JOHN F. HARDWICK

Concerning: A REPORT FROM THE DEPUTATION TO THE 65th GENERAL CONVENTION

This report consists of two parts and is intended to be one part of a series of reports which will come to you over the coming months—in which your Deputation to the General Convention will try to communicate to you what happened at that meeting and the implications of the many actions taken for our life here in the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

Equally significant was the meeting of the Triennial of the Episcopal Churchwomen. Reports of their sessions—and the implications for our ministry and mission—will be forthcoming during the next months.

Our life as participants in the Convention at Minneapolis was immeasurably enriched by the presence of some 135 women who were Deputies; and the many who were part of the Triennial. We were particularly fortunate to have so many women from the Diocese of Pennsylvania present with us.

Something in the neighborhood of 518 resolutions were given to the House of Deputies for consideration. We dealt with them singly or in groups in about 250 actions. We had two joint sessions with the House of Bishops in which we heard presentations on the General Church Program for 1977 and on the "Venture in Mission" program. We had a Special Order to hear some remarks by the Archbishop of Canterbury.

* * * * *

As the first part of this (first) report, here is a general summary of our activity and a highlighting of some of the more significant actions taken:

We participated in five Open Hearings: two on the (then) Draft Proposed Book of Common Prayer; one on the Ordination of Women to the Priesthood and the Episcopate; one on the General Program of the Church for 1977; and one on the "Venture in Mission" program. Four of our 8 deputies were members of committees of the Convention: the Committee on Structure, the Committee on Constitution, the Committee on National and International Affairs, the Sergeant-at-Arms Committee and the Committee on Commissions and Committees. Other deputies, alternates and persons from the Diocese of Pennsylvania—who were visiting or who were relating to the Convention or the Triennial in some particular way—attended Committee meetings when matters which were of concern to us were being discussed. These meetings were usually held at 8 A.M.

Every morning at 6:30 A.M. there was a celebration of the Eucharist in our hotel in which we, and members of the deputation from Northern Michigan, were regular participants. The celebrants were priests from the Diocese of Minnesota—and on one morning we were privileged to have the Rt. Rev. Philip F. McNairy, the Bishop of Minnesota.

We also held an open meeting every evening to which all persons from the Diocese of Pennsylvania were invited. Usually some 25–30 persons gathered around 10 P.M. for these sessions which often lasted until 12:30 or 1 A.M. We reviewed the happenings each day in the House of Bishops and the House of Deputies and looked ahead to the decisions we were going to be called on to make, seeking out the advice and counsel of all present. We identified committee meetings which were dealing with matters of importance to us and determined who would attend each one.

It is our intention to share with you, in future Diocesan mailings, the substance of the resolutions we passed which we think would be of interest to you. (We are enclosing the one on Abortion because of the great concern about this matter at the present time.)

THE MATTERS WHICH WILL MOST DIRECTLY AFFECT OUR CHURCH LIFE, IN THE IMMEDIATE AND NEAR FUTURE, APPEAR TO US TO BE:

—the availability and authorization for use of The Proposed Book of Common Prayer, beginning Advent I, 1976. (The revised edition should be available for the beginning of Lent, 1977);

—the canonical authorization for Dioceses to proceed (after January 1, 1977) to the Ordination of Women to the Priesthood and Episcopate;

—the identification and acceptance (by the House of Bishops) of two alternate ways to regularize, or complete, the Ordinations of Women to the Priesthood which took place in Philadelphia and Washington, respectively;

—the call for study and dialogue in the areas of Human Sexuality (including homosexuality);

—participation in the "Venture in Mission" program about which more will be coming to us from the Executive Council of the National Church in the near future;

—continued awareness and action around the many problems of individual and religious freedom which face many of our brothers and sisters in various parts of the world.

There are more things about which we will wish to communicate with you—and we will be doing so in the near future.

* * * * *

On page 3, you will find the second part of this report. It consists of informed descriptions of their impressions by two of the Deputies on the following matters: 76-17 Part A, the question of Ordination of Women to the Priesthood and the Episcopate; and 76-17, Part B, the Proposed Book of Common Prayer.

76-17

PART A
ON THE ACTION IN THE HOUSE OF DEPUTIES 65th GENERAL CONVENTION ON THE ORDINATION OF WOMEN

By Hope (Mrs. Philip) Sellers, Lay Deputy

Because the issue of ordaining women to the priesthood has been of prime concern to church members during the last three years, deputies were inundated with letters, papers and magazines for or against ordination. The feeling (at least my feeling) before convention was one of apprehension because so many were polarized—their arguments long considered and firmly fixed. Threats of schism (or at the least, non-compliance with any decision) were voiced by both sides.

In the days preceding the actual vote, the main effort was to bring together as many people as possible for open discussion. The Presiding Bishop had met with representatives of the two coalitions during the summer. In addition, an open hearing was held, on one of the evenings early in the Convention, and deputies and non-deputies alike were given time to present their arguments to a large audience which included the Committee on the Ministry of the House of Deputies.

The resolution finally presented was an uncomplicated canon which opened the priesthood and episcopate to men and women alike. It was considered first in the House of Bishops where, after several hours of debate, it passed by a vote of 96–60. The following day the same resolution was introduced to the House of Deputies. The visitors' gallery filled and groups of people clustered around the closed circuit television sets in the Convention Hall as the House carefully and thoroughly considered each amendment and each opinion offered. When the final word had been said, the deputies joined by everyone in the Hall, engaged in five minutes of silent prayer. The silence was profoundly moving as each of us addressed God with our own thoughts and in doing so became particularly aware of all the others standing and praying.

The vote cards were marked and collected and, in the half hour before the results were announced, the president of the House of Deputies, the Rev. Dr. John B. Coburn, thanked first the deputies, then the gallery for their patience and the spirit in which the deliberations took place. The House thanked the president and the Committee on Ministry whose thorough preparation and presentation had enabled the deputies to deal with a controversial subject in an atmosphere of calm and fairness.

When the vote was announced—

Clergy Order: 60 yes; 39 no; 15 divided
Lay Order: 64 yes; 36 no; 13 divided

—there was a slight gasp from the gallery, and Dr. Massey Shepherd, chaplain of the House, lead us (as planned) in prayers for the Church. The hush that had been evident during the voting continued; and when the deputies adjourned it was with the feeling that the decision was indeed historic—but that our over-riding memory would be of the atmosphere in which it was made.

76-17

PART B

THE ACTION OF GENERAL CONVENTION REGARDING THE REVISION OF THE PRAYER BOOK

Two days before the opening of the Convention, The Prayer Book and Liturgy committees of the House of Bishops and the House of Deputies met jointly to begin their consideration of the Report of the Standing Liturgical Commission which was embodied in the Draft Proposed Book of Common Prayer together with a supplementary list of changes and corrections. The Draft Proposed Book which was published on February 2 of this year represents the considered experience of the Church in the light of nine years of trial use of various earlier versions of the several rites and lectionaries.

After Convention began and until action was taken on the Draft Proposed Book, the Joint Committee on Prayer Book and Liturgy met daily to consider the Book and their own list of some 96 amendments. Every point of view was represented on the Committee, and there were moments along the way when one wondered if they would ever be able to arrive at a common mind. Members of both houses and visitors were welcome to attend the Committee meetings though without voice. In addition to the daily meetings, two evenings were set aside for open hearings in order to give members of the Church at large in addition to those directly associated with the Convention an opportunity to express their views and make their suggestions. At the end of the second evening, the Chairman of the Committee of the House of Deputies asked if anyone else wished to speak and the silence which followed made it clear that, at least in the mind of the audience made up of those pro and con, everything had been said.

The next step was the presentation of the Committee report to the House of Deputies. This took place on Friday, September 17. The Committee recommended adoption with amendment. The House of Deputies then began to consider the Report and first of all called upon the President of the House of Deputies and the Presiding Bishop to appoint a Committee "to study the question of continued use of the 1928 Book of Common Prayer", and to report its findings to the 66th General Convention [[in 1979]] . . . after this resolution was passed, the Deputies turned their attention to the text of the Draft Book and the list of amendments offered by the Prayer Book Committee of the House. By action of the previous General Convention two full days were set aside for discussion and debate to ensure that the question be considered with utmost thoroughness. In addition to the list of amendments offered by the Prayer Book Committee, individual Deputies representing themselves, their dioceses, or special interest groups rose to make their amendments. Throughout the proceedings the discussion remained temperate, thoughtful, and thorough. When at last on Saturday afternoon the time for formal debate of the Draft Book arrived there was little on either side left to say. At the end of the debate the assembly was asked if there was anything to be added and once again there was silence.

The House was now ready for the question which was whether or not to adopt the Draft Proposed Book with amendments as the Proposed Book of Common Prayer. The official vote was reported as follows:

Number of Clerical Votes	113	for adoption	108	against	3	divided	2
Number of Lay Votes	111	"	90	"	12	"	9

The next order of business was to Authorize the now Proposed Book of Common Prayer for use in addition to or as an alternative to the Standard (1928) Book of Common Prayer for the next three years until the 1979 General Convention when it will be decided whether or not the Proposed Book is to replace the 1928 Book as the Standard Book of Common Prayer. Because the Prayer Book is Part of the Constitution of the Church any action to change the Book must be approved by two succeeding Conventions before it can be considered final.

The action of the House of Deputies was overwhelmingly concurred with by the House of Bishops with several amendments, and it now remains for the Church to study, use, and pray the Proposed Book which will be generally available at the beginning of Lent 1977. Here in the Diocese, we are putting together a number of resources to assist our People, Clergy, and Congregations to discover with the help of the Spirit "what is new and what is old", and to discern in all our liturgical forms the living Presence of the Risen Christ.

FRANK T. GRISWOLD, III
Deputy to General Convention 1976

(76-17: REPLACEMENT COPY [[Destroy Resolution #D-95, House of Deputies' Resolution, 9/14/76]])

RESOLUTION BY 65th GENERAL CONVENTION ABOUT ABORTION

September, 1976

WHEREAS, it is imperative for the Church as the Body of Christ to provide guidelines for human behavior which reflect both the love and judgment of God, now therefore be it

RESOLVED: the House of Deputies concurring, that the following principles and guidelines reflect the mind of the Church meeting in this 65th General Convention:

1. That the beginning of new human life, because it is a gift of the power of God's love for his people, and thereby sacred, should not and must not be undertaken unadvisedly or lightly but in full accordance of the understanding for which this power to conceive and give birth is bestowed by God.

2. Such understanding includes the responsibility for Christians to limit the size of their families and to practice responsible birth control. Such means for moral limitations do not include abortions for convenience.

3. That the position of this Church, stated at the 62nd General Convention of the Church in Seattle in 1967 which declared support for the "termination of pregnancy" particularly in those cases where "the physical or mental health of the mother is threatened seriously, or where there is substantial reason to believe that the child would be born badly deformed in mind or body, or where the pregnancy has resulted from rape or incest," is reaffirmed. Termination of pregnancy for these reasons is permissible.

4. That in those cases where it is firmly and deeply believed by the person or persons concerned that pregnancy should be terminated for causes other than the above, members of this Church are urged to seek the advice and counsel of a Priest of this Church, and, where appropriate, Penance.

5. That whenever members of this Church are consulted with regard to proposed termination of pregnancy, they are to explore with the person or persons seeking advice and counsel other preferable courses of action.

6. That the Episcopal Church express its unequivocal opposition to any legislation on the part of National or State governments which would abridge or deny the right of individuals to reach informed decisions in this matter and to act upon them.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHMEN FOR SOUTH AFRICA

14 West 11th Street • New York, N. Y. 10011 • Phone: (212) 477-0066

—For A Free Southern Africa—

THE MZIMELAS FROM SOUTHERN AFRICA

A 33-year-old dream came near to realization on 12 June 1976 when Sipo Elijah Mzimela was ordained a deacon at the Cathedral Church of St. John the Divine in New York City.

As a boy of eight in 1943 in South Africa, Sipo Mzimela told his mother that he wanted to become a priest. He and his family were members of St. Faith's Anglican church in the port city of Durban, a parish then headed by Father Alphaeus Zulu, later to become the first African bishop of the diocese of Zululand. Mrs. Mzimela died the following year, and the oppressive nature of South African society intervened to put off the small boy's dream.

Sipo finished his primary and secondary education in Durban and went on to Adams Teacher Training College nearby to win his teacher's diploma in 1955. For the next six years he was an instructor of history, geography and English at the middle school in Cato Manor, the African "location" outside Durban.

But a teaching career and a future in the church were overshadowed by the growing demands of African liberation from the racial and political apartheid domination in South Africa. In 1952, Sipo joined the African National Congress Youth League. Chief Albert Luthuli, president general of the African National Congress—later to be made a Nobel Peace Prize laureate—was seeking to establish a non-racial state in South Africa by peaceful means, exemplified by the nation-wide Defiance Campaign protesting apartheid laws such as carrying passes.

On 21 March 1960, the Sharpeville massacre occurred. Sixty-nine peaceful African demonstrators, including women and children, were shot dead and 200 wounded by the South African Police. Sipo Mzimela confesses that his faith was deeply shaken by this act of a self-proclaimed Christian government and could not see himself joining the ranks of the clergy. The ANC was banned and thousands of South Africans were detained. Some leaders went underground and some escaped from the country. Sipo took this course in 1961, crossing the border into neighboring Swaziland.

Several months thereafter, he went to Rhodesia (now Zimbabwe), traveling by rail through South Africa disguised as a miner. He settled in Bulawayo, Rhodesia's second largest city, and found a job as regional salesman for a tobacco company. He also joined the Zimbabwe African Peoples Union, then the only African political party in the British colony. As he visited his accounts, he carried liberation literature hidden beneath cartons of cigarettes in the trunk of his car.

In July 1963, Sipo was arrested in a sudden police swoop—part of the colonial government's effort to stamp out African resistance—and held for 48 hours, and as suddenly released. Again dressed as a miner, Sipo Mzimela went over into adjacent Northern Rhodesia, shortly to become the Republic of Zambia. From there he made his way by bus and by foot—sleeping on the open veldt by night—to cross yet another frontier, into Tanganyika, soon to be the Republic of Tanzania.

In Dar es Salaam, he approached the American embassy seeking a visa to enter the United States to study theology. He had no passport or travel documents of any kind and was refused. A friendly East European journalist advised him to take up a scholarship in Czechoslovakia. In November 1963, Sipo flew to Prague. After a year at the university there, he entered West Germany to learn yet another language and to enroll at Bochum

University to begin a five-year course which earned him an economics and business administration diploma.

During his stay in Bulawayo, Sipo met Esther Munyaradzi who was a nurse at the same hospital as his sister. Esther, a Zimbabwean, had finished her nurses' training at Mpilo Central Hospital, Bulawayo, and won her cap as a registered nurse in 1963. Soon they were talking of marriage. But Sipo's arrest and flight cut short any such plan. Their letters are full of the agony of separation and Sipo's promise to send for Esther as soon as he was settled. Once in Germany, he wrote advising her to go to England. Esther exercised her prerogative as a Commonwealth citizen and went to England in 1965. She completed her training as a surgical nurse at Bristol hospital.

In October 1966, Esther joined Sipo in Germany. Sipo recalls, "I spent many a sleepless night and Esther must have cried a basket full of tears. It appeared we would never be able to be married as I had none of the documents the German authorities required and there was no possibility of getting them." At the end of November they were given "special" permission. Esther and Sipo were married on 16 December 1966 at All Saints Anglican Church in the city of Dortmund.

Sipo continued his studies and Esther obtained a position in a Dortmund hospital. In 1969, a daughter, Nomusa, was born. That same year, Sipo got a British passport, and in December passed his final exams with a major in business administration. In 1970, he joined a local insurance firm. In 1970, too, Esther's and Sipo's second daughter, Lindiwe, was born.

An eight-year-old boy's dream was alive and growing. Sipo Mzimela determined to make an effort to enroll in an Episcopal seminary in the United States. But there were problems. Neither the German government nor the British government was prepared to grant the travel documents for Nomusa and Lindiwe. The British argued that since they were born in Germany they were the responsibility of the Bonn government. The Germans contended that since both parents bore British passports, the children were London's charges.

In 1973, Esther and Sipo agreed that he would go to the United States to train for the priesthood. Once there, Sipo would send for her and the children. He notified Bishop Zulu of their decision, and unsuccessfully attempted to obtain a scholarship from the World Council of Churches. He applied to and was accepted at the General Theological Seminary in New York City, with a part scholarship. He entered General in September 1974.

Esther applied for registration as a nurse with the New York State Nursing Council in Albany, at the same time requesting a visa to enter the United States. The Nursing Council offered a temporary permit once she had reached this country but American consular officials in Germany required issuance of a valid nurse's license before granting a visa. The waiting period dragged on. The Dortmund hospital allowed Esther rooms, waiving a regulation which prohibited staff members with children to live in the nurses quarters. Finally, in February 1975, Ms. Mzimela, Nomusa and Lindiwe were given permission to come to the USA as dependents and arrived to join Sipo at an apartment rented from General Seminary.

Sipo Mzimela cannot of course return to South Africa—not yet. The thrust for freedom in Southern Africa is well underway, growing in intensity in South Africa, Zimbabwe and Namibia. Sipo's canonical ties are with Damaraland, that diocese which encompasses all of the territory of Namibia, a country illegally occupied by South Africa in defiance of the lawful authority, the United Nations. Both the Bishop of Damaraland, the Right Rev. Colin O'Brien Winter, and the Suffragan Bishop, the Right Rev. Richard Wood, have been expelled from Namibia by the South African regime because of their close identification with the Namibian people's freedom movement.

The Rev. Sipo Mzimela was ordained to the diaconate on 12 June 1976 by the Bishop of New York, the Right Rev. Paul Moore, acting for Bishop Winter. The Rev. Mr. Mzimela serves part time on the staff of St. Luke's Church, Williamsbridge, in the Bronx, in charge of the parish day camp under the direction of the rector, the Rev. Patrick Walker.

Ms. Esther Mzimela applied on 29 July 1975 for a change in status of her visa so that she could practice her profession as an RN. This permission has not come by June 1976. The New York office of the Immigration and Naturalization Service says it has lost her application. Both parents of the Mzimela family must work in order to support themselves and their two young children.

Sipo Mzimela is a member of the executive board of Episcopal Churchmen for South Africa, an independent organization dedicated to supporting Christian witness in Southern Africa and freedom and majority rule in that region. Sipo Mzimela's ordination came on the 20th anniversary of ECSA's founding—12 June 1956. He was the preacher the evening before at a Eucharist celebrating that event.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN—DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA

ANNUAL REPORT—1976

A global view of women and the church became ours during the past year, creating a new awareness in each of us.

1975 was designated as International Women's Year, and the women of the diocese gave a salute to the year's activities at a luncheon in December.

Another event of significance was the appointment, by the Bishop, of the Diocesan E.C.W. President to be one of the two Diocesan Representatives to attend the Fifth Assembly of the World Council of Churches in Nairobi, Kenya. The discussions, slide presentations, and other events following the Assembly have pointed out to us that the Episcopal Churchwomen, who are a part of the worldwide Anglican Communion, are also a part of the 285 other denominations which make up the World Council of Churches. Whatever affects the women (and men) in any of these denominations affects us.

This year has involved us as a part of the Women's Triennial Meeting in Minnesota at the time of General Convention. The women of the Diocese of Pennsylvania had a special input into planning this meeting since their Diocesan President was elected to be the representative from Province III (the Province of Washington) on the National Triennial Program-Planning Committee.

With the many worldwide and national events which have taken our time and interest, we have kept in touch with our home base and recognize the valuable programs being conducted in our parish E.C.W.'s and affiliated organizations:

The Girls Friendly Society
The Daughters of The King
The Diocesan Altar Guild
The Church Periodical Club
The Elizabeth Price Martin Leagues

Our Vice-Presidents, three of whom with the Executive Secretary and the President, were delegates to the Triennial meeting, have completed another year of activity in the interest of all of the people of the Diocese of Pennsylvania. Excerpts from their reports follow:

The United Thank Offering—As the result of a continuing outpouring of thanksgiving, $64,755.02 was presented by our Diocesan Custodian as the Annual Offering from the Diocese of Pennsylvania at the beautiful U.T.O. Presentation Service in Minneapolis on September 19th. During the granting of the 75 requests, CHOICE—a health advocacy program for women in Philadelphia—received a grant of $10,000 towards an innovative new project.

The E.C.W. Department of Missions distributed the income from the legacies left to the Episcopal Churchwomen for mission purposes as follows:

St. Vincent's School For Handicapped Children, Port Au Prince, Haiti
St. Barnabas School Scholarship Endowment Fund, Germantown, Philadelphia, Pa.
Kotzebue (American Indians) Singers Travel Fund to General Convention from Fairbanks, Alaska
Bishop Hare Mission House, Mission, South Dakota
St. Christopher's Mission, Bluff, Utah
Kensington Self-Help Discretionary Fund, Philadelphia, Pa.
National Coalition for Children's Justice, Yardley, Pa.

The E.C.W. Department of Promotion is continuing its effort to keep open lines of communication between all women of the diocese. This attempt is made by reporting through Diocesan News—the centerfold of "The Episcopalian". With continued support of the Lea Hill Scholarship Fund by the Episcopal Churchwomen, three deserving young women were given grants for graduate study.

The E.C.W. Department of Diocesan Ministries co-sponsored with the World Services Department a party for the veterans at Coatesville Hospital. Diocesan Ministries also sponsored a "Go-See" trip to Springfield, the new retirement residence, where a tour of the building and luncheon were enjoyed. During the year, a list of opportunities for service was compiled along with a list of program suggestions and was made available to parish E.C.W.'s.

The E.C.W. Department of World Services distributed knitted and sewn garments to the American Red Cross, Episcopal Community Services, American Indians and refugees from Viet Nam. $200.00 from legacy funds of this department was sent to the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief.

The Episcopal Churchwomen of the diocese help undergird the outreach of the diocese. During the past year, contributions were made to the following special concerns:

Gray Panthers—TV Media Project
Scholarship Aid for Consultant Network Training
Furnishings for Springfield Retirement Residence
Scholarship for Province III Conference at Hood College
Philadelphia People's Bail Bond
Dr. Arnold Purdie Memorial Fund
Church Periodical Club
CHOICE
United Farm Workers
Covenant House, Inc.
Holy Trinity School Orchestra, Port Au Prince, Haiti, for summer study in Massachusetts
Kensington Action Group—Fairmount Deanery
Travel Scholarship for a diocesan young woman to teach at Holy Trinity School's summer camp in Haiti
Girls Friendly Society Travel Scholarship to England for 100th Anniversary
Society For Enrichment Through Exposure (SEE)—Family motivation ministry
Calvary United Presbyterian/St. Paul Episcopal Summer Youth Program

All of the aforementioned work and contributions came from a modest budget of $19,000.00 raised through voluntary contributions from parish E.C.W.'s and the interest from a few small legacies. These funds are carefully administered by elected diocesan E.C.W. officers who still lovingly volunteer hours and hours of their time.

The Episcopal Churchwomen also administer the Diocesan Special Food Crisis Fund, promptly distributing funds as received to Emergency Food Cupboards in the five-county area served by the diocese.

The Episcopal Church, along with our country, is celebrating two hundred years of spiritual growth and development. The women have been an integral part of all of this, working side by side with the men to build the church and the country.

The Bicentennial year presents new challenges to us in terms of lifestyles and mission. Our Annual Diocesan Program-Planning Day helped us to view the challenges, collectively, and go forth into our parishes to work on them. In this way, the Episcopal Churchwomen in the Diocese of Pennsylvania join ranks with sisters around the globe,—not just viewing the many challenges but responding to them with action.

It is Christians in action against the ills of the world as we stand on the threshold of another century!

Respectfully submitted,

THE DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA

193rd CONVENTION

The Bicentennial Year in the Diocese of Pennsylvania began with good news. In 1975 a group of laymen, headed by Bob Fernley, agreed to raise outside of the diocesan budget the money needed for Pennsylvania's observance of the Bicentennial Year. In early January it became known that funds would be available for the Diocesan Bicentennial Commission to carry out a number of things that until then could only be "hoped-for-plans."

Funding came from some very generous grants from a small number of Episcopalians. These donors felt strongly that the story of the Anglican Church in Colonial Pennsylvania was of such significance that it should be told in the most appealing terms to the widest possible audience. For the work done by Robert Fernley, P. Blair Lee, J. Pennington Straus, Richard Stevens and others who interested these generous donors in supporting our efforts, we are most grateful.

With funds available, work began in earnest on an unbelievably tight schedule. One of the key dates was May 4, 1976. This was when Bishop Allin was scheduled to speak to a diocesan-wide dinner sponsored jointly by the Church Club and the Diocesan Commission.

With this as a target day to complete a number of projects, John Reinhardt, who was retained by the Commission to coordinate our efforts, retreated into the 18th century. In the early months of 1976, John became on speaking terms with men like Bishop White, Jacob Duche, William Smith, Francis Hopkinson, Absalom Jones, and early leaders of our church in Pennsylvania.

John came back to the 20th century long enough to work out an extremely favorable arrangement with THE EPISCOPALIAN. As a result of this, our sixteen-page insert, Bicentennial Time, appeared first in May in the national edition with a circulation of more than 220,000. Some 500,000 additional copies were printed for distribution throughout the balance of 1976, and as long as supplies last, even into the coming year.

Bicentennial Time was received with great enthusiasm and appreciation, not only in Pennsylvania but throughout the church. Copies were distributed through the center city churches to visitors all summer long and were given out widely at General Convention in Minneapolis. We have in this insert an excellent, highly readable record of the Anglican Church in Pennsylvania. John Reinhardt and Margaret Landis collaborated in the writing; Josephine DeWitt Lipton, an accomplished Delaware Valley artist, did the designs; Henry McCorkle, Editor of THE EPISCOPALIAN, and Edgar Williams, of the Philadelphia Inquirer, served as Editorial Consultants.

Producing this insert cooperatively with THE EPISCOPALIAN was the only way we could possibly have had such extensive, nation-wide coverage—and for this, our special thanks to this publication.

At the same time that Bicentennial Time was in production, the Rev. Robert Snyder and John were working on "A GOOD WORK BEGUN," the slide/sound reminiscence of Bishop White which struck such a responsive chord when it was premiered at the dinner in May. Funding for the production of "A GOOD WORK BEGUN" was provided by the Evangelical Education Society. One hundred or more prints of this presentation are in use throughout the church. It has gone a long way to make an important era in the church here come to life.

The Church Club/Bicentennial Commission Dinner on May 4 was one of those rare occasions that occur when nearly 800 clergy, laymen and women come together to celebrate for the sheer joy of it. The dinner, sound/slide show, the Presiding Bishop circulating from table to table and then speaking to us, will long be one of rich memories of the Bicentennial Year. Walter Baker, President of the Church Club, and Tom Zug, Chairman of the Dinner Committee, deserve our thanks.

Beginning in May, Evening Prayer was read daily in both Christ Church and St. Peter's by clergy and lay readers from throughout the diocese. Attendance was less than spectacular (better in Christ Church than in St. Peter's), but the fact that visitors saw these churches as living institutions and not "museums" is very important.

Throughout the year the Commission has cooperated with St. Thomas' church in efforts to commemorate the ministry of Absalom Jones, first black priest in America, ordained by Bishop White in this diocese in the early 1800's.

As the Bicentennial Year moves to a close, we can look back on our own "good work begun." Those of us who served on the Commission feel that what has been done this year will have a lasting effect in the diocese. We feel, as Bishop White says in the film presentation, "all we have tried to do is to plant well." We believe the Bicentennial observance has been good for the spirit of the diocese, that it has acquainted hundreds of thousands of others outside of the diocese with the importance of our ministry in Pennsylvania at a crucial period in the life of our nation.

It has been dangerous to include names in this report for fear of omitting some—which I hope I did not do! Finally, my thanks to all who served on this Commission—for your concern, your counsel, your ideas . . . and special thanks to Bishop Mosley for the encouragement and guidance he gave to all of us as he served as our liaison with Bishop Ogilby's office.

The Bicentennial Year in the Diocese of Pennsylvania was a happy time, indeed!

Chairman

COMMISSION ON CLERGY SALARIES AND PENSIONS

Diocese of Pennsylvania

Resolutions for Presentation to 193rd Annual Convention of the Diocese

PREAMBLE

In 1975, Diocesan Convention adopted a markedly different approach to clergy compensation, an approach that included not only salary determination but also ministry definition, job description, and performance evaluation. Many congregations have begun implementation of this new process but by any measure it is still very new. Accordingly, the Commission wants to reinforce and reaffirm the changes adopted last year—including the salary ranges which are believed to be realistic and adequate through 1977. Therefore, the resolutions offered to Diocesan Convention in October, 1976 are modest. The Commission will in subsequent years continue to fulfill its responsibility of monitoring all elements of a clergy compensation package (i.e., salary, housing and utility allowance, fringe benefits) and the administrative costs of employing a clergyman (i.e., auto allowance, reimbursement of professional expenses). Changes thought to be necessary will be recommended to future diocesan conventions, taking into account changes in cost of living and changes in compensation patterns and practices, in general.

1. RESOLVED that the 193rd Diocesan Convention urges each congregation to participate fully in the new process of ministry definition, job description formulation, performance evaluation, and compensation determination adopted by the 192nd Diocesan Convention one year ago, and

   BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this Commission emphasizes that compensation for clergy should normally be within the salary range—not at the minimum salary and more likely around the mid-point—established for that person's position, and

   BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that all vestries are asked to conduct a compensation review of their clergy at least once per year toward the end of raising the compensation level taking into account (1) rate of inflation (estimated to be 5.7% in the year 1976), and (2) an evaluation of work performance.

2. WHEREAS the "A" responsibility level has a particularly low minimum salary of $7,000 annually;

   BE IT RESOLVED that Convention urges all congregations employing "A" level people to compensate them above the minimum.

3. WHEREAS clergy in our diocese under 65 years of age working in an ecclesiastical capacity are currently provided with $10,000 of term life insurance, and

   WHEREAS this amount is well below what most clergy need to provide adequate protection for their families, and

   WHEREAS the standard of "two times earning" is now very common in industry and educational institutions;

   BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that beginning January 1, 1977, the amount of term life insurance for clergy working in an ecclesiastical capacity is increased to twice the cash salary reported to the Church Pension Fund.

4. RESOLVED that the Clergy Salaries and Pensions Fund assessment for 1977 be $15,000 (same as 1976 assessment).

2. During such time for discussion, the Convention shall be considered as in a Committee of the Whole.

3. The person presenting the Resolution shall be allowed a maximum of 5 minutes for his/her presentation. All subsequent speakers on the resolution shall be limited to 2 minutes each.

4. 5. Persons making reports to the Convention shall be limited to 5 minutes for their presentation.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that #7 of the Standing Rules of Order be amended to read:

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that #8 of the Standing Rules of Order be changed to read:

"The mover of the original motion shall have 5 minutes to present reasons why the motion to lay upon the table should not prevail;" instead of: "shall have as much time as the presiding officer may permit."

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CONSTITUTION AND CANONS

The Committee on Constitution and Canons has approved as to form the following revisions of Canons 3.3.2 and 3.3.3 proposed by the Bishop:

Substitute for the first sentence of Canon 3.3.2:

> "In November 1976 and triennially thereafter the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall appoint a Treasurer and an Assistant Treasurer of the Diocese, both to serve without salary. During the absence or disability of the Treasurer, the Assistant Treasurer shall have all the powers of the Treasurer."

Revise Canon 3.3.3 to read:

> "A vacancy in the office of Treasurer or of Assistant Treasurer shall be filled by the Bishop with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee."

REMARKS

The revision of Canon 3.3.2 provides for the appointment of a Treasurer, the present Canons not specifying how the Treasurer is selected. In practice, the Treasurer has been nominated and elected by Convention.

Canon 3.3.2 presently provides for Convention to elect the Assistant Treasurer. The proposed revision provides for his appointment in the same manner as the Treasurer.

While 1976 is out of step with a triennial election since 1920, it is in step with the fact the Treasurer and Assistant Treasurer were elected three years ago.

Canon 3.3.3 presently provides for the filling of a vacancy in the office of Treasurer or Assistant Treasurer by the Standing Committee. The proposed revision provides for the filling of such vacancies by the Bishop with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee.

The Committee recommends the adoption of a housekeeping change to Canon Subsection 21.2.1 to bring it into conformity with the fact that the Provincial Synod has changed its membership base from four clergy and four laypersons to one clergy and two laypersons to read as follows:

> "At the Stated Convention following the regular meeting of the General Convention there shall be elected one Clergyman, who shall be canonically resident in the Diocese, and two Laypersons, who shall be Communicants of the Church and domiciled in the Diocese, to be Deputies to the Provincial Synod, whose appointment shall continue until others are elected in their places."

FINANCE AND PROPERTY COMMITTEE
REPORT TO 1976 DIOCESAN CONVENTION

BISHOP OGILBY, BISHOP MOSLEY, MEMBERS OF THE CONVENTION:

The Convention has now before it the task of considering and adopting the Program and Budget for the Diocese for 1977. Each year the Diocesan Council is required by the Canons to present to this Convention a budget for the next year. Under the Canons the Standing Committee determines the amount that will be required for the support of the Episcopate, and the Diocesan Council, with the assistance of the Budget and Finance and Property Committees, prepares the recommended budget for the administration of the Diocese, the support of the National Church, and for the support of Mission Programs within the Diocese. In this last category, the support of Diocesan programs, we are in the second year of a three year cycle in which the basic priorities were established last year.

In a moment, you will hear from Dr. Russell McLaughlin, Chairman of the Diocesan Budget Committee, who will put before you the proposed Program and Budget on behalf of the Diocesan Council. A copy of the Resolutions which will be offered, along with the Proposed Program-Budget itself, is included in your packet as document number 76-RA-2. We owe special thanks to Father John Hardwick of the Bishop's Staff and to Dr. McLaughlin's Budget Committee for the work they have done in preparing the Program-Budget for you. Also to George Soule of the Bishop's Staff and Lou Day for the thoughtful format that they have provided for the printing of the Budget. I urge each of you to read and reread the three statements that are at the beginning of the Proposed Budget. These are the Message from Bishop Ogilby, the Statement of Purpose of the Diocese, and the Background of the Budget. Together, I think you will find them very helpful in gaining an understanding of how we, as a Diocese, are trying to accomplish our mission through concrete programs of service and ministry.

Before turning the microphone over to Dr. McLaughlin, I would like to remind you of the following:

1. First, for the past several years the Canons of the Diocese concerning the assessment have been suspended. As a result, an assessment of $100 for each congregation has been in effect. Additionally, we have had one unified Diocesan Budget, rather than a Budget separated into assessment and missionary sections. It is our proposal to continue in the same manner for 1977.

2. Second, may I remind you of the procedures under which the Diocese has been and we propose should continue to operate with regard to the Budget. They are as follows:

   > The Treasurer of the Diocese is to receive a firm pledge for 1977 from each congregation as soon as possible, but in any event no later than December 31, 1976, and if the total estimated or pledged for 1977 differs significantly from the income projected, the Budget for 1977 is to be amended by the Budget and Finance and Property Committees for review and adoption by Diocesan Council.

3. Third, in the last several years we have adopted a system of Guidelines for giving for each congregation which are intended to provide a reasonable basis for funding our proposed budget. These Guidelines, which are advisory and not mandatory, are based on a congregation's apparent ability to give, taking into account past giving records, current expenses of operation, special situations, and other pertinent factors. We propose that such Guidelines again be made a part of our overall budget process. The Guidelines for 1977 have already been communicated to each congregation by the Finance and Property Committee.

And now, to present the Program and Budget to you, I give you Dr. McLaughlin.

* * * * *

I would now like to present the resolutions which I propose Convention adopt with regard to the Program and Budget for 1977:

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this Convention accept and approve the Guidelines for Congregational Support of the Diocesan Program-Budget for 1977 formulated, under the direction of the Treasurer of the Diocese, as a way of determining the fair share of Diocesan Support needed from each congregation and as a method of funding the Program-Budget of the Diocese;

DEPUTIES TO 193rd DIOCESAN CONVENTION

DR. RUSSELL U. McLAUGHLIN, Chairman, Diocesan Budget Committee

Concerning: SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION, PROPOSED PROGRAM-BUDGET FOR 1977 (PART II OF THE 1976–1978 THREE-YEAR CYCLE)

Enclosed are two items of Supplementary Information to assist you in your consideration of the 1977 Program-Budget of the Diocese of Pennsylvania:

1. Some explanation of the amounts proposed for the various Programs in the Program Function and of the proposed increases and decreases.

2. "77: Your General Church Program for 1977." This will give you some idea of what use is made of the money which is given to the Program of our National Episcopal Church, as authorized by the 65th General Convention in Minneapolis this past September. (As you will notice in the Proposed 1977 Program-Budget, the amount from the Diocese of Pennsylvania is $394,000.)

Of the amount of $394,000 which the Diocese proposes to give in 1977, $27,571 is our General Convention assessment. This is our share of the General Convention Budget (for 40½ months, ending 12/31/79 of $2,424,730, which is used for the expenses of the General Convention and of its Committees, Commissions and Societies of Convention which carry on the work of the General Convention during the next three years). This budget is separate and distinct from the General Church Program to which the enclosed brochure is addressed.

The balance of the $394,000 (or $366,429) is what we are planning as our share of the $14,030,000 General Church Program Budget/1977. This is $30,511 less than the amount indicated as our portion of the total.

In 1976 we have allocated $374,000; our General Convention assessment for 1976 is $20,000 (see Diocesan Convention Report 76-9, page 2).

PART A #2

YOUR GENERAL CHURCH PROGRAM FOR 1977

IT IS "PEOPLE HELPING PEOPLE."

My dear friends in Christ:

Not long ago a member of the Episcopal Church asked me what we mean by the term "General Church Program." I replied that the General Church Program is the name given to that part of the Christian mission which the dioceses of the Episcopal Church have decided to carry out together. These dioceses, meeting every three years as a General Convention, decide what this common effort is to be. They pledge a share of their own income to support it. Necessary staff is employed. Through the Provinces of the Church and at General Convention, the dioceses also choose 41 Episcopalians—lay persons, priests and bishops—to serve as an Executive Council. The Council administers this joint effort known as the General Church Program between triennial sessions of the General Convention.

I would not want the simplicity of my answer to veil the complexity of the question, however. It would take volumes to describe how the Church can exist overseas and in some parts of the United States only because of this General Church Program. And there is also the ecumenical progress, the human needs that are met, the education that is made possible, the books that are published, the people in hospitals, jails, schools, and in the armed forces who receive a special ministry—all made possible by the General Church Program. This pamphlet will give you but a brief idea of how your money is used to do this work.

The budget for the 1977 General Church Program which is being proposed to the General Convention in September is 75 pages in length. In breadth, however, it is both wide and comprehensive, reaching across national borders, ecumenical frontiers and cutting through cultural and economic barriers. The best word to sum it up is people—people helping people better to understand and live the gospel of Jesus Christ.

This proposed General Church Program for 1977—or one that is very close to it—is being adopted in September by the General Convention. People from your diocese will be among those at the Convention voting on it. My own hope is that this program will receive not only the enthusiastic endorsement of the General Convention, but also interest, concern and trust from every member of this Church.

It is one of the ways in which the Episcopal Church needs you.

JOHN M. ALLIN
Presiding Bishop

YOUR 1977 GENERAL CHURCH PROGRAM $14,000,000

In 1975, Episcopalians contributed more than $400 million to their Church. This sounds like a lot of money—and it is—but it is put into perspective when one learns that there was a profit of almost $700 million from the gambling tables in Las Vegas during the same year.

Of this $400 million, about 86% was spent by vestries in support of local congregations and to meet locally approved needs outside the parish. About 11% was forwarded by congregations to dioceses for support of diocesan bishops, staffs and programs endorsed by diocesan councils and conventions. About 3% of the Church's total income was used to support the General Church Program.

It is expected that these percentage figures will remain about the same during the current year. The amounts will be somewhat greater, however, since Episcopal Church income received through individual pledges, bequests and other sources continues to rise each year.

The proposed budget assigned to each of the administrative areas below includes the salaries of staff members.

IT IS NATIONAL AND WORLD MISSION $7,100,000

- Support for 14 United States dioceses, 20 overseas dioceses, and the Convocation of American Churches in Europe. Each group of dioceses at home and abroad decides among themselves how the grant is to be apportioned.
- Partnership contributions to 25 Anglican provinces, councils and churches around the world. An example of member churches of the Anglican Communion working together to carry out Christ's mission.

- Aid to non-Anglican churches with which we enjoy full communion, such as the Lusitanian Church of Portugal.
- Episcopal Church participation in the work of ecumenical agencies, including the National Council of Churches (31 member churches) and the World Council of Churches (263 member churches).

IT IS EDUCATION FOR MINISTRY $2,000,000

- Enabling funds for coordinated work in evangelism, Christian education and lay ministries.
- Support for youth and college ministries.
- Funding for the three Episcopal black colleges (St. Augustine's, St. Paul's and Voorhees).
- Support for the Church's ministry to servicemen and their families, as well as chaplaincies for hospitals, prisons, etc.
- Ministry to veterans, conscientious objectors, and those who have resisted national service.
- Support for the work of The National Institute for Lay Training, the Ministry Council (a coordinating agency for clergy and seminaries), the Board for Theological Education, the Clergy Deployment Office, and the Office of Pastoral Development (a resource for bishops and other clergy needing special pastoral assistance).

IT IS CHURCH IN SOCIETY $1,900,000

- Program and grant support for a ministry to Hispanic, Native American, Black and Asiamerican Episcopalians.
- Program and grant support for Community Action and Human Development, a granting agency for community-based projects. Whenever possible, CAHD projects involve local congregations and church structures; grants are usually made on a matching basis with funds from other sources.
- Support for the Church's specialized ministries to the deaf, the blind and the aging.
- Continuing aid for the Church's work in the areas of prison reform, alcoholism, drug abuse, a new approach to juvenile justice, and programs of community health care.
- Support for the Appalachian People's Service Organization (APSO), a special ministry to the people of the Appalachian Mountain area in eleven eastern dioceses.
- Support for the continuing involvement of the Church as a socially responsible institutional investor.
- Educational support for the Church's growing concern about the underlying causes of the world hunger crisis. This office works closely with the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief, which is directly responsible for the disbursement of contributions for alleviating hunger.

IT IS ADMINISTRATION $1,700,000

- Operating costs for the Church Center—maintenance, heat, electricity, telephones, mortgage interest, office supplies, printing, personnel services, insurance.
- Maintenance support staff and administrative services.
- Pensions to former missionaries.

IT IS COMMUNICATION $490,000

- Funds for developing and maintaining communication systems within the Church and for initiating a cooperative communication strategy.
- Liaison with religious and secular media, including newspapers, magazines, radio and television networks and stations.
- Funds for printed materials, exhibits, motion pictures, video-tape, film strips, cassettes, etc.
- Support for the Diocesan Press Service.
- Funds for regional and diocesan communication workshops.
- Staff support for interpretation and promotion of the Presiding Bishop's Fund and other special offerings.

IT IS FINANCE $540,000

- Professional staff support to fulfill the legal corporate functions of the Episcopal Church.
- Support for parish and diocesan administrator seminars; financial and budgetary diocesan surveys; compiling and tabulating national statistics for the Church, received through parochial reports; audits for overseas dioceses.
- Financial consultation services for dioceses.

IT IS DEVELOPMENT/STEWARDSHIP $164,000

- Funding for the production of stewardship materials for annual Every Member Visitation use in parishes, and for year-round stewardship planning.
- Development of a network of stewardship consultants.
- Support for regional workshops and diocesan conferences to train diocesan and parish stewardship leaders.
- Funding for seminary courses in parish stewardship methods.
- Support for special fund-raising campaigns (such as the Executive Council's $3.1-million drive for Cuttington College, Liberia).

IT CAN'T DO THE WHOLE JOB . . .

It is quite obvious that the General Church Program budget proposed on these pages cannot meet all of the General Church Program needs. Each year some programs and projects have to be eliminated because income does not match needs, and the canons of the Episcopal Church require that each annual General Church Program budget be balanced.

The Executive Council has developed a channel through which sources of extra-budgetary income throughout the Church can be put in touch with these extra-budgetary needs. This channel is called the Income Development Program. Sometimes this income is received from individuals who wish to support some aspect of the Church's work beyond their local congregations. Some dioceses also wish to pay more than their share of the General Church Program and designate a special use for their extra money. Occasionally a parish will want to share an unexpected bequest.

Descriptions of the national Church's extra-budgetary needs have been published in The Episcopalian and have been mailed to every diocesan bishop in the Church. Such descriptions are available to anyone who might wish to see them. Each year about $200,000 is contributed by Episcopalians through this program, and the General Church Program is able to include many more programs and projects as a result.

The Office of Development/Stewardship at the Episcopal Church Center has complete information about the Income Development Program. Please write us at 815 Second Avenue, New York, N. Y. 10017. We hope to hear from you about it.

TOTAL GENERAL CHURCH PROGRAM 1977 ESTIMATE $14,000,000

The ongoing need of the Church for sacrificial giving has often been expressed by its leaders. Here is a statement by the Rt. Rev. Henry Knox Sherrill, 20th Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church (1947–1958).

"When one stops to consider the world in which we live with the great amount of suffering, of hatred, and with the threat of war, the magnitude of the task becomes apparent. We are to do our best to make the kingdoms of this world the Kingdom of God and of his Christ. This task demands all that we are and all that we have. God grant to us all greater vision, more capacity to give and to serve in this, the greatest of all undertakings."

PART B

October 21, 1976

DEPUTIES TO 193rd DIOCESAN CONVENTION

DR. RUSSELL U. MCLAUGHLIN, Chairman, Diocesan Budget Committee

Concerning: EXPLANATION OF INCREASES OR DECREASES IN AMOUNTS PROPOSED IN THE PROGRAM FUNCTION FOR 1977 (PART II OF THE 1976–1978 THREE-YEAR CYCLE)

Program 1: SUPPORT OF LOCAL CONGREGATIONS THROUGH COAC
(Coalition of Aided Congregations)

The $225,000 proposed, an increase of 34.7% over the budgeted amount for 1976 of $167,000, about 19% of the amount actually received by COAC (see Note 1 under this Program in 1977 Program-Budget, The Diocesan News, September/'76) is the response to this Program's position as the number one program priority of the Diocese—after our participation in the work of the National Church. $250,000 was the amount asked for by the COAC Congregations.

Program 2: SUPPORT OF MINISTRY THROUGH LOCAL CONGREGATIONS

The sizeable increase in the amount proposed for this Program Area ($74,880 over $28,200 allocated for 1976, an increase of 165.5%) is brought about as a response to the continuing request from Deaneries for more support and assistance to local congregations, as they face difficult decisions concerning their organizational existence, life and ministry. Specifically, this request includes new items of $25,000 for the South Philadelphia Regional Planning Program (see article, "Nine Congregations Invited to Share South Philadelphia Plan," p. A, The Diocesan News, October/'76; also, Report of the Mission Strategy Committee, Diocesan Convention, item 76-8); and $6,000 for the work of the Stewardship Committee, particularly the Diocesan Stewardship Education Program (see "Stewardship Consultants Available," The Diocesan News, October/'76, p. D; and Report by Bishop Ogilby, 12.1.6, Agenda of the 193rd Diocesan Convention).

In addition, the following programs which appear in the 1976 Program-Budget have been increased: Fairmount Team Ministry (from $8,000 to $10,000); Diocesan Consultant Network (from $3,100 to $5,280), Communications (from $17,000 to $28,600—this increase representing the amount this program was subsidized, in the past, from the Bishop's Funds).

Program 3a: MEETING THE NEEDS OF SENIOR CITIZENS

As is noted in Program-Budget, 1977 (The Diocesan News, September '77) this program shows a decrease in the total amount of $14,000 or 35.4%. However, as is noted in the same explanation, this does not mean a decrease in the ministry of the Diocese in this area. The decrease is the result of the removal of two items: $5,800 allocation of Bishop's Staff time which appeared in the 1976 Budget (see below, Bishop's Staff); the other item removed is an amount of approximately $9,000 concerned with the work of the Extension Ministries Among the Aged and Blind (EMAB) of Episcopal Community Services which has been placed in Program 5: "Responding to Community Needs," since it is concerned with blind persons who are not aged and who are not always associated with the Episcopal Church.

Program 3b: WORKING WITH YOUTH IN THE CHURCH

The major differences from 1976 here are that the support of the work of Episcopal Community Services; Institutional Chaplaincy Service in Juvenile detention facilities has been increased from $13,000 to $25,430. $5,000 of support to some of the programs of Children and Family Service of Episcopal Community Services (ECS) has been removed and allocated elsewhere: $2,000 support of a program for the development of a Black Education Curriculum does not appear for 1977, and a small item for the work of the Youth Caucus has been added ($600). The Black Education program has received funding from the National Church Budget.

Program 4: Providing Adequate Education in the Church

$1,500 has been added to the amount allocated in 1976 for the work of the Ministry in Higher Education (from $38,300 to $39,800) and an item of $3,146 has been added for the educational work of the Institutional Chaplaincy Service of ECS.

Program 5: Responding to Community Needs

The support of the Advocate Community Development Corporation (ACDC) has been increased from $7,200 to $10,000; the support of the ECS Prison Casework Program from $3,000 to $3,100. Our participation in the work of Voyage House, Inc. has been reduced from $5,000 to $4,000. The work at Calvary-St. Paul Church, South Philadelphia, has been added in the amount of $1,500 and the work of the Philadelphia Nutritional Council for $1,000.

Bishop's Staff

The total amount proposed for 1977 is $115,000, of which $69,000 is assigned to the Program Function, and $46,000 to the Episcopal Function.

This breakdown is to reflect the fact that approximately two-fifths of the time of members of the Bishop's Staff is available to the Bishop to assist him in carrying out his responsibilities.

The proposed total figure for Bishop's Staff is $19,800 above the amount allocated for 1976. The allocation of Staff responsibility in the 1977 Program has not yet been determined by the Bishop.

The report on this, for 1976, is found in Diocesan Convention Report 76-14.

Episcopal Community Services

The proposed Program-Budget for 1977 reflects an increase in the support of Episcopal Community Services from $75,000 in 1976 to $92,100 in 1977. This is in response to the continuing request from the Deaneries for more adequate support from the Program-Budget of the Diocese for this work. ECS asked us for $120,200 for 1977.

SEPTEMBER 1976

1977 PROGRAM-BUDGET

A Message from Bishop Ogilby

Dear Friends:

The Preamble to the Constitution of the Episcopal Church (adopted in Philadelphia, October, 1789) states that we are:

> a constituent member of the Anglican Communion, which is a Fellowship within the One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church of those duly constituted Dioceses, Provinces, and regional Churches in communion with the See of Canterbury . . .

Within that Anglican Communion and Episcopal Church we are a Diocese with many constituted parts, including deaneries, congregations, agencies, institutions — all of which are composed of people, the people of God — you and me, individual persons — each of us a vital responsible contributor to the well-being of the whole for Christ's sake. Each part has a distinctive role and function; together, it is an ongoing, dynamic effort to discover and do God's Will for His World. That particular area of His World for which we, as the Diocese of Pennsylvania, have special responsibilities is indicated by the map of our Diocese which is a portion of this document.

One of the clearest ways in which we exercise our appropriate function, as a Diocese, is through the work we do together in developing our Program-Budget and in carrying it out. For 1977, we are considering Part II of a three-year plan. Many, many people from all parts of the Diocese have worked all this year to put together the Program-Budget for 1977 you have before you. Many people from all parts of the Diocese are presently engaged in carrying out the Program authorized for this year (1976) by our Diocesan Convention last October.

Everything each of us does as individual Christians, as a member of a congregation, included in a deanery — is part of this Diocesan Program. Whenever we bear witness to the Good News of God in Jesus Christ we are carrying out Diocesan Program, as set forth in our Statement of Purpose.

Someday our Program-Budget may be able to reflect more of the individual and local efforts which are all reaching toward the objectives of our work as the Diocese. Until that time, we show only that selection of program activities which are specifically supported by us as a Diocesan community. They help each of us — as individuals and each of our congregations and deaneries — to minister in many areas of our world, our nation and our five-county area. These programs help us to stand with prisoners, the poor, the hungry and oppressed; black, brown, red and white persons; the aged in institutions, the blind, the deaf, the distressed; alienated young people; congregations struggling for survival; congregations wanting to reach into mission.

Our individual effort seems small — but the sum total of those efforts can, and does, make a difference. Lives are saved, spirits renewed, hope rekindled, meaning and purpose discovered; love, and caring, experienced. And each one of us is an important piece of each of those Christly experiences.

Faithfully,

Lyman C. Ogilby

A Statement of Purpose of the Diocese of Pennsylvania

Adopted by Diocesan Convention, 1972

In Christ, God was reconciling the world to Himself.

There is only one ministry and it is Christ's ministry. The Church, as the Body of Christ, exists to exercise that ministry to the Glory of God the Father and in loving concern for all men everywhere.

Having accepted Jesus Christ as our Lord and Saviour, and empowered by the Holy Spirit, we are committed to the work of His Church by:

Proclaiming the Gospel through preaching, sacramental acts, worship and education;

Witnessing to the Gospel by applying it to social problems in our contemporary society by effective involvement, by counselling those in need, and by missionary outreach;

Governing the Diocese in such a manner as to facilitate the discharge of our responsibilities both to the Episcopal Church in the United States of America and to the members of this Church within the bounds of the Diocese.

Background on the Budget

The Diocesan Program and Budget express the stewardship and commitment of funds, time and talent to the three functions of the Diocese — Episcopal, Administrative and Program.

The ministry shared through these functions is not confined to the five-county area of the Diocese, but extends through the National Church to the world-wide Anglican Communion.

The facts and figures here are the second-year phase of a three-year program approved by the 1975 Convention but funded one year at a time. The Diocesan Program and Budget process has evolved over a period of several years, with more and more participation by individual church people each year. The six program areas were ranked for the three-year period with equal priority given to working with youth in the church and meeting the needs of senior citizens. These priorities have been observed in budgeting for 1977.

Six program area sub-committees of the Diocesan Program and Budget Committee, submitted recommendations for program and funding for their respective areas.

Budget for the Episcopal function is set by the Standing Committee, and the budget for the Administrative function is organized by the Treasurer of the Diocese and the Controller.

As the 1977 phase of the three-year program developed, the initial asking totalled $1,475,580 — an increase of almost one-third over the 1976 budget. This was gradually cut back to the total of $1,295,080 presented here, which represents an increase of about one-sixth over the 1976 budget.

With strong advocacy from program area committees, Diocesan Council accepted this total financial commitment, even though it exceeds projected income from congregations by $325,080.

Income from congregations is normally augmented to some extent by income from interest and endowment, and the expectation for 1977 interest and endowment income would bring the total to within $132,000 of the budget proposed here. Council passed two resolutions at the June 1976 meeting to make up the difference. The first requested the Bishop to designate $79,000 from Bishop's Funds for use in the Program Function of the 1977 Program-Budget and the Bishop has agreed. The second resolution stated a method to raise the remaining $53,000 would be determined at the November 20, 1976 Council meeting.

To carry out Diocesan Objectives, Diocesan Council proposes the following Sources of Income:

	1976 Projected	1977 Proposed
Endowment	$ 114,000	$ 219,000(1)
Interest	12,000	16,000
Congregations	950,000	970,000(2)
Other	40,450	90,080
	$1,116,450	$1,295,080

(1) Includes non-recurring contribution of $79,000 from Bishop's Funds.

(2) Includes $53,000 to be raised by a method to be determined at the November 20 Council meeting.

— and the following Expenditures:

	1976 Program-Budget	1977 Proposal
EPISCOPAL FUNCTION	$ 159,450	$ 175,000
ADMINISTRATIVE FUNCTION	183,000	194,000
PROGRAM FUNCTION
OUTSIDE THE DIOCESE
Support of National Church Program and General Convention	394,000	394,000
WITHIN THE DIOCESE	380,000	532,080
	$1,116,450	$1,295,080
Allocations of the Diocesan Portion to Program Areas
1. Support of Local Congregations Through COAC	167,000	225,000
2. Program Support of Ministry Through Local Congregations	28,200	74,880
3a. Meeting the Needs of Senior Citizens	39,500	25,500
3b. Working with Youth	25,000	31,700
4. Providing Adequate Education in the Church	48,300	52,946
5. Responding to Community Needs	15,200	53,054
—Bishop's Staff (Assigned to Program)	56,800	69,000
	$ 380,000	$ 532,080

THE EPISCOPAL FUNCTION:

1976	1977
$159,450	$175,000 + 9.8%

Supports the Diocesan Bishop's ministry as a Bishop of the Church: pastor, administrator, liturgical officer, enabler of ministries, representative of the Diocese to the community and to other churches and a member of the House of Bishops. Additions to the budget primarily reflect modest salary increases and a portion of the cost of an increased Bishop's staff.

THE ADMINISTRATIVE FUNCTION:

1976	1977
$183,000	$194,000 + 6%

Provides administrative assistance and management of the physical and financial resources of the Diocese in an efficient manner. Additions are accounted for primarily by a premium increase in the group medical and life insurance plan covering all retired Diocesan clergy employees of the Diocese plus modest salary increases in the Treasurer's office.

THE PROGRAM FUNCTION:

A. National

1976	1977
$394,000	$394,000

Supports the National Church program and the General Convention. Provides our fair share of the financial and other support for the work of the Episcopal Church in all parts of the world, and as part of the Anglican Communion and the wider Christian fellowship with concern for empowerment of oppressed people, for combating racism, for appropriate response to human suffering, particularly from hunger and malnutrition, and for spreading, through word, deed, and corporate witness, the Good News of Jesus Christ.

B. Diocesan

1976	1977
$380,000	$532,080 + 40.0%

Supports the six program areas approved by the 1975 Convention for the 1976-78 triennium. Program Area Committees are active and feel strongly that Diocesan programs should not bear the brunt of budget cutting to balance the Program-Budget as happened in past years. The total includes an increase of $15,000 in funds allocated to various activities of Episcopal Community Services (ECS).

PROGRAM 1 - Support of Local Congregations Through COAC (Coalition of Aided Congregations)

1976	1977
$167,000(1)	$225,000 + 34.7%

Provides financial support to local congregations in COAC and represents the Program-Budget subsidy for 14 of the 27 congregations which make up COAC. The specific amounts for individual congregations are determined by the COAC Task Force.

(1) In 1976 COAC actually received more than the amount budgeted because of a $7,000 allocation from Special Gifts to the Bishop and $15,000 designated by Diocesan Council from 1975 year-end surplus.

PROGRAM 2 - Support of Ministry Through Local Congregations

1976	1977
$28,200	$74,880 + 165.5%

Provides programs to strengthen mission and ministry in congregations in the Diocese. A special $25,000 item is earmarked for a plan for renewal and development of ministry and mission in South Philadelphia. Other items include:

$6,000 towards the upcoming stewardship effort;
$10,000 for the Fairmount Team Ministry for work towards a regional parish of five congregations in Kensington (Christ Church and St. Ambrose, St. Luke, St. Nathanael, St. Barnabas, and the Free Church of St. John;
$5,280 support for the Consultant Network;
$28,600 for communications (a subsidy for The Diocesan News and Code-a-phone).

PROGRAM 3a - Meeting the Needs of Senior Citizens

1976	1977
$39,500	$25,500 - 35.4%

Diocesan ministry to the aging is financed through many channels other than this program area. The reduction in this allocation is more than offset by allocations elsewhere and by other avenues of Episcopal ministry to senior citizens. Note the following:

A new program for 1977 is $2,000 for deaf senior citizens of Philadelphia, a specialized senior citizen group serving the deaf elderly with social and informational programs.

Support for work with the aging, through the ECS Extension Ministries Among the Aging and Blind, has not been reduced and that work is entirely funded through this program area. In addition, Program 5 has an allocation of $9,750 designated for ECS work among the blind.

A retirement facility at Springfield is already functioning under the auspices of ECS, and another one is under development on the grounds of the Cathedral in Roxborough through action and endorsement of Diocesan Convention, the Standing Committee, Diocesan Council and the Cathedral Chapter.

Ongoing support of work in Southwest Philadelphia is provided by $1,000 allocated to Community Celebration — a neighborhood action organization and drop-in center, affiliated with a multi-purpose senior center.

PROGRAM 3b - Working with Youth

1976	1977
$25,000	$31,700(2) + 26.8%

Provides assistance to congregations and deaneries in meeting the religious needs of youth and continues support of the needs of young people in the community. Items here include:

$5,670 for the Strawberry Mansion Project of the ECS Children and Family Services;

$25,430 to the ECS Institutional Chaplaincy Service for its work in juvenile detention facilities;

$600 for a Youth Caucus as a way to involve youth representatives and other young people in Diocesan Convention.

(2) Outside the Program-Budget, Council has set aside $30,000 for each of the next three years from the proceeds of Denbigh's sale primarily for working with Church youth through the Youth Program Coordinator and the Youth Committee.

PROGRAM 4 - Providing Adequate Education in the Church

1976	1977
$48,300	$52,946 + 9.6%

This is made up of three items:

$10,000 for the Educational Resource Team which provides a variety of consultant service to congregations and staffs the audio visual library;
$3,146 for education work done by the ECS Institutional Chaplaincy Service;
$39,800 for Ministry in Higher Education now focused at University of Pennsylvania, Temple University, Lincoln University, and Cheyney State College and, ecumenically, at West Chester State College and Drexel University.

PROGRAM 5 - Responding to Community Needs

1976	1977
$15,200	$53,054 + 249%

Provides for involvement in meeting the needs of the people of the five-county area and allows for the exercise of a caring ministry and a witness to the Good News. This program provides:

$23,704 for the support of ECS Institutional Chaplaincy Service;
$9,750 for work among the blind to the ECS Extension Ministries for the Aging and Blind:
$4,000 to Voyage House, Inc. in Germantown for its work in providing short-term housing for young people;
$1,500 for the summer project at Calvary-St. Paul Church in South Philadelphia working with handicapped persons;
$10,000 for Advocate Community Development in North Philadelphia for its work in community development and neighborhood housing;
$3,100 for ECS Prison Casework Program which aids in parole arrangements;
$1,000 for work on local hunger problems through the Philadelphia Nutritional Council.

NOTE - Three-fifths of the cost of the Bishop's staff, including secretarial support, is allocated to Program areas. The 1977 proposal of $69,000 is 21.5% higher than 1976's $56,800. It reflects the addition of a part-time staff person for Urban Concerns and proposed staff assistance for Stewardship. None of the work of the Bishops, the financial manager, or the Youth Program Coordinator is financed from this allocation.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON INCORPORATION TO THE DIOCESAN CONVENTION

October 22, 1976

1. Respecting Formal Amendments to Articles of Incorporation

The Committee on Incorporation has considered the following applications for its approval of proposed amendments to Articles of Incorporation:

EPISCOPAL CHURCH OF THE ADVENT, KENNETT SQUARE, PA.
GOOD SHEPHERD CHURCH, HILLTOWN, PA.
ST. ANDREWS-IN-THE-FIELD, SOMERTON, PA.

The Committee finds that the proposed amended Articles of Incorporation of the EPISCOPAL CHURCH OF THE ADVENT, KENNETT SQUARE, PA., are in substantial conformity with the approved form of Articles of Incorporation and offers the following resolution:

> RESOLVED: That the proposed amended Articles of Incorporation of the EPISCOPAL CHURCH OF THE ADVENT, KENNETT SQUARE, PA. be approved and that permission be given either to file the same with the Department of State of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, or to apply to the proper Court for approval of the same.

The Committee finds that the proposed amended Articles of Incorporation of the GOOD SHEPHERD CHURCH, HILLTOWN, PA. are in substantial conformity with the approved form of Articles of Incorporation and offers the following resolution:

> RESOLVED: That the proposed amended Articles of Incorporation of the GOOD SHEPHERD CHURCH, HILLTOWN, PA. be approved and that permission be given either to file the same with the Department of State of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, or to apply to the proper Court for approval of the same.

The Committee finds that the proposed amended Articles of Incorporation of ST. ANDREWS-IN-THE-FIELD CHURCH, SOMERTON, PA. are in substantial conformity with the approved form of Articles of Incorporation and offers the following resolution:

> RESOLVED: That the proposed amended Articles of Incorporation of ST. ANDREWS-IN-THE-FIELD CHURCH, SOMERTON, PA. be approved and that permission be given either to file the same with the Department of State of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, or to apply to the proper Court for approval of the same.

2. Other Matters

During the past year, the Committee on Incorporation considered, on an advisory basis only, Proposed Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation of the CATHEDRAL CHURCH OF CHRIST and proposed Articles of Incorporation for CATHEDRAL VILLAGE. The CATHEDRAL CHURCH OF CHRIST is a separate corporation, without any parochial organization or representation in Convention, governed by Canon 18; CATHEDRAL VILLAGE is an organization intended to be maintained for benevolent, administrative or other purposes under the auspices of the Protestant Episcopal Church within the meaning of Canon 17.2.1. While the Committee on Incorporation has no authority with respect to either organization, the Committee believes that its function would lend itself to assist in determining whether the Articles of Incorporation of such organizations comply with Canon 17.2.1.1.

Canon 1.4.1 as presently worded refers to a procedure for amendment of a Charter by By-Laws which is no longer used under the Pennsylvania Non-Profit Corporation Law. As worded, Canon 1.4.1 permits amendments by that procedure to become effective without approval of Convention but requires that all other amendments of Articles of Incorporation be reported by the Committee on Incorporation to and approved by Convention before they become effective. The Committee believes that this requirement is cumbersome as applied to routine amendments conforming substantially with the Model Articles of Incorporation adopted by the Convention of 1969.

In the light of the foregoing, the Committee, therefore, offers the following resolutions:

> RESOLVED: That the Committee on Canons be directed to revise Canon 1.4.1 to authorize the Committee on Incorporation's proposed amendments to Articles of Incorporation which conform substantially with the Model Articles of Incorporation adopted by the Convention of 1969, or any amendment thereof, without reference thereof to or action thereon by Convention; provided that all such amendments so approved be reported by the Committee to the next stated Convention.
> FURTHER RESOLVED: That the Committee on Canons be instructed to consider amendments to Canon 1.4 and Canon 17.2 to provide for a review by the Committee on Incorporation of Articles of Incorporation of organizations operated under the auspices of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

Respectfully submitted,

Richard K. Bauder
A. Edward Chinn
John A. Clark
C. Leighton Erb
G. Selden Pitt

Arch Street Friends Meeting House
304 Arch Street
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

OCTOBER 22, 23, 1976

The One Hundred and Ninety-Third Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Pennsylvania assembled in the Arch Street Friends Meeting House, 304 Arch Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on Friday evening, October 22, 1976.

The Rt. Rev. Lyman C. Ogilby, Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania and President of Convention, opened the 193rd Convention with a prayer. He then introduced the Rt. Rev. J. Brooke Mosley and appointed him Assistant to the Bishop for Convention. Mr. Duffield Ashmead, III, Vice-Chancellor was appointed Parliamentarian.

A quorum being present, the Bishop nominated Harry C. Barbin, Esquire for the office of Secretary of Convention. The nomination was seconded and passed. Mr. Barbin's appointments of the Rev. John F. Hardwick and Olga Larkin as Assistant Secretaries were affirmed by the Convention.

Mr. George L. McCoy, Chairperson of Diocesan Convention Committee, presented his Committee's memo on procedure for the 193rd Convention, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 1.

The Rev. John Clark presented the Agenda for the 193rd Convention (see Pages 4–8, Part I), which on motion made and seconded was approved.

The Rev. John Clark presented resolutions on procedure (R-2 and R-3) for the 193rd Convention (see Pages 67 and 68, Part I). On motion made and seconded the resolutions were approved.

The Secretary read Canon 2.9 (the Canon of Courtesy). He then moved that the Rev. Robert Greer, Presbyterian Minister-in-Charge of Calvary St. Paul's be admitted to a seat with his lay deputies at the 193rd Convention with voice but no vote. The motion was seconded and carried. On motion by the Secretary, and seconded by a Deputy, the members of the clergy listed on Page 44, Part I were admitted to seats at Convention with voice but no vote.

The Secretary announced that pursuant to the Standing Orders, as amended by the 189th Convention, each parish shall have the right to approve two youth representatives who shall have the right to sit with the deputies from their parish and who shall have the privilege of speaking but not voting on matters coming before the Convention.

The Secretary requested the Rev. Arthur F. Brunner, Chairman, Democratic Processes Committee to present special resolution on the Courtesy resolution. Mr. Brunner moved that Resolution (R-4) be referred to the Committee on Constitution and Canons since it involves the matter of a vote in Convention. He stated that voting in Convention is covered in Article IV of the Diocesan Constitution; therefore this matter must be reviewed by the Committee on Constitution and Canons and their recommendation brought before the 194th Diocesan Convention. (Resolution R-4, Page 68, Part I)

In order that Members of Religious Orders present may be seated in this Convention as they have in the past, Mr. Brunner moved the following Resolution which was seconded and approved:

> WHEREAS, the witness of the Religious Orders is of vital importance to the Episcopal Church, and
> WHEREAS, the Religious of All Saints Sisters of the Poor and The Society of Saint Margaret have ministered sacrificially over many years in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, and
> WHEREAS, the ministries of men and women under vows have never been acknowledged in the form of full participation in the Annual Convention of the Diocese,
> THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that this 193rd Convention extend floor privileges and voice to all Religious professed in Orders according to Title III, Canon 27 of the Episcopal Church and who are resident in this Diocese with the consent of the Ordinary.

The Secretary announced that there were two matters of unfinished business left from the 192nd Convention. He reported that these matters and the status of them are included in the report of the Rev. John F. Hardwick, Assistant Secretary of Convention, No. 76-11 (Page 45, Part I).

The Secretary stated that the following Congregations have not submitted their 1975 Parochial Report:

Church of St. John the Evangelist, Philadelphia
Gloria Dei (Old Swedes) Church, Philadelphia

He further stated that in accordance with the provisions of Section 5(a) of Article IV of the Diocesan Constitution they are not eligible for Lay Representation at this 193rd Diocesan Convention. These congregations were so notified by letter from the Secretary of Convention, dated, August 10, 1976.

The Secretary then stated that as of Friday morning's mail delivery, the Diocese had not received the $100.00 contribution from the following congregations:

Church of St. James the Less

He announced that in accordance with the provisions of Section 5(c) of Article IV of the Diocesan Convention, that he declared that they have forfeited their right of representation in this 193rd Convention. The said parishes have been so notified by letter from the Controller of the Diocese, dated October 19, 1976.

The Secretary reminded the deputies that the circulation on the floor of Convention of advertisements and literature not relevant to the business of Convention was not permitted. However, circulation of reports from departments, committees, organizations and institutions which report to Convention, and resolutions or communications relevant to the business of Convention was encouraged.

The following appointments by the President of Convention were announced by the Secretary:

Harry C. Barbin, on behalf of the Committee on Elections, announced that in accordance with the provisions of Standing Order V, as revised at the 189th Convention, the Committee had received the nominations of the Nominating Committee at least 60 days prior to Convention and had publicized the same to all parishes and missions, noting the names of present incumbents eligible for re-election. The Committee also received nominations by petition. The willingness of all nominees to serve if elected had been ascertained. On August 23, 1976 and October 10, 1976, the Secretary sent to all Deputies a list of all nominees who were willing to serve in the office for which they had been nominated, and background statements by each of the nominees were published or made available to all Deputies to the 193rd Convention pursuant to resolution of Diocesan Council.

Mrs. Marie Lennan reviewed the ballot and voting procedure.

The Secretary asked for further nominations from the floor as permitted by Canon and Standing Orders. Mr. Emory Thomas was nominated for election to the Commission on Clergy Salaries and Pensions. There being no further nominations, a motion was made to close the nominations. It was seconded and carried.

The resolutions were received prior to October 10, 1976 and were placed on the Agenda. The resolution received after October 10, 1976 was also placed on the Agenda since the Committee had determined that the reason for lateness was adequate. With respect to the election of four lay persons to the Christmas Fund, Ethel Copper and Fred R. Witkop were the choice of both orders, and they were declared elected by the Secretary. The Honorable John B. Hannum was the choice of both orders for Commissary, and he was declared elected by the Secretary. No member of the clergy or laity received the minimum number of votes required for election to the Standing Committee or the Commission on Clergy Salaries and Pensions.

At this point the Rev. Charles L. Poindexter and Mr. Marshall Nelson, Jr., withdrew their names for election to the Standing Committee.

The President of the Convention declared that time would be allowed to permit the Deputies to complete and cast their Second Ballot for the election of two lay persons to the Christmas Fund, one clergy and one lay person to the Standing Committee and one clergy and one lay person to the Commission on Clergy Salaries and Pensions.

Robert Deacon made a motion which was seconded to amend Resolution R 5 by deleting from Section 1 of the Resolution the words "(and at least once a month)". After discussion, the amendment was defeated by a voice vote. The motion to adopt Resolution R 5 was then defeated by a voice vote.

(Relative to the Life and Ministry of Father William D. Turner)

WHEREAS, on Friday, September 10, 1976, The Reverend William Davis Turner departed this life after a long illness; and

WHEREAS, he has served as a Priest in the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America for thirty-eight years, and of which time he was the Rector of Saint Augustine's Protestant Episcopal Church of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania for thirty-three years; and

WHEREAS, under his leadership Saint Augustine's Church became an independent Parish, the congregation moving from 2026 Columbia Avenue to the present site at 27th Street and Girard Avenue and there was renamed Saint Augustine's Church of the Covenant where a spirit of independence and adherence to the Faith will always remain his legacy to that congregation; and

WHEREAS, while Rector of Saint Augustine's Church of the Covenant, he gave leadership in the Diocese of Pennsylvania through his membership on various Committees, Departments and as a member of the Diocesan Council; and

WHEREAS, during his years as Rector of Saint Augustine's Church of the Covenant, Father Turner served the community of North Philadelphia through affiliation with many civic organizations serving and witnessing for the welfare and rights of the citizens involved;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT the 193rd Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania meeting in the Arch Street Friends Meeting House, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, October 22–23, 1976, express its Thanksgiving to Almighty God for Father William D. Turner's Life and Ministry with us and among us; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that copies of this Resolution be forwarded to his widow, Mrs. Dorothy N. Turner, and to the Wardens, Vestry and Congregation of Saint Augustine's Church of the Covenant, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, as evidence of our appreciation for the legacy he left us.

THE VESTRY OF SAINT AUGUSTINE'S CHURCH OF THE COVENANT

LITTLETON RICH, Secretary ARTHUR J. SLATER, Rector's Warden

The Rev. John Hoover moved an amendment to the Twelves amendment to provide for $30,000.00 of life insurance coverage instead of $20,000.00. The Hoover amendment, after being seconded, was defeated by voice vote. The Twelves amendment after being seconded was approved by a vote of 191 to 152. NOTE 1

Before I invite the clergy who are new in the Diocese since last Convention to come up and introduce themselves, I want to say just a few words about clergy deployment. There has been a good deal of alarm over the past year or two about unemployment among the clergy and some dioceses have even gone so far as to have a moratorium on candidates for ordination. Although there may be quite a few clergy in the Diocese who would like to change their ministry or who would like to be doing something other than their principal employment, we have very few at any time who are truly unemployed. The church is not guaranteeing employment to candidates for ordination, but there is still considerable opportunity for people in Holy Orders in paid positions and in non-stipendiary ministry. The competition for desirable positions is severe, just as it is in every other profession, but there is no surplus of people who are qualified for the demanding jobs. Bishop Ogilby described my work in clergy deployment as "the stewardship of ordained persons" and I consider this a responsibility not only to clergy, but also to lay people—so that congregations and clergy will share their ministry effectively together.

One of the questions that keeps coming up is whether too many vacancies are being filled by clergy from outside this Diocese. The numbers don't stand still long enough to come up with exact figures on every count, but I can describe some relationships which you may find reassuring.

At the time of the 1974 Diocesan Convention, eight parishes were listed as vacant—needing a rector, vicar, or priest-in-charge. Since then, another 26 vacancies have occurred including the seven now vacant, making a total of 34. Twenty-six have been filled during that time with 17 people from within the Diocese and nine from outside. In addition, 12 priests and deacons have taken full-time curacies and assistantships in this Diocese in the past two years. Approximately two-thirds of these positions have been filled by people from within the Diocese and one-third from outside.

This ratio seems consistent with the policy of providing opportunity for local people plus some renewal from outside sources.

It's also reassuring, I think, to note that over two-thirds of the active priests in this Diocese are now receiving their main support from congregations and less than one-third from other sources classed as non-parochial. But even within this non-parochial group, which numbers about 80, 20 or more can be classed as church-related positions.

Well, so much for the statistics. You have a list in your packet of the names of the clergy who are new in this Diocese since the last Convention, and I'll ask them now to come forward and introduce themselves at the microphone.

GEORGE H. SOULE
Administrative Assistant for Clergy Deployment

EPISCOPAL COMMUNITY SERVICES

REPORT OF EPISCOPAL COMMUNITY SERVICES TO DIOCESAN CONVENTION 1976

"Prosper their work O Lord, that always bearing your presence with them they may guide the young, heal the sick, support the aged, and seek out and save all those who are in tribulation, necessity, or distress."

—From a prayer for Episcopal Community Services

THE GOSPEL IN ACTION

WHAT WE ARE DOING

The Children and Family Service. With the assistance of one of our dedicated social workers, a warm-hearted, out-going couple with two children of their own, have welcomed into their family a four-year-old girl whose father disappeared many months ago and whose mother is emotionally ill.

All Saints' Hospital. The victim of a disabling accident two weeks before retirement, a man entered the hospital in an extremely despondent state, refusing to eat. He had lost both legs and the sight of his left eye. Having been persuaded finally to accept food and to exercise, through months of rehabilitation therapy he became strong and skilled enough to operate his power driven wheelchair and to return home.

Extension Ministries for Aging and Blind. Through our efforts, a deaf and blind widow in her forties, eager to find employment, received training in the operation of an electronic device which enables her to read print. The training organization was so impressed with her ability that she is now employed by them in a highly responsible full time job.

Institutional Chaplaincy Service. A man in his thirties, in prison on a morals charge, turned a conversation with our chaplain into a polemic against God and Christianity. He did agree, however, to further conversations. Although at first they were the outpouring of his deep bitterness, our chaplain finally was able to convince him of his true concern. Then the prisoner began to reveal that he valued the chaplain's loving acceptance and in it sensed the reflection of God's forgiveness. Now a custodian in offices for a religious publication, the ex-prisoner continued to visit with the chaplain and is considering church membership.

Springfield Retirement Residence. Moving into Springfield after thirty years in her own home was difficult. She missed her old neighborhood. As months have gone by, however, she has made new friends, joined a bridge group and plans to attend a regular orchestra matinee series in Philadelphia with another resident.

WHAT WE COULD DO

Youth Counseling. With $40,000 additional we could double our services to troubled adolescents and their families. Sixty additional young people would be helped.

Day Care. For $25,000 the number of children from near poverty level families, served by day care in North Philadelphia, could be increased from twenty-four to forty-eight.

Education for Children. A tutorial program for children now in our care, which would enable many youngsters with learning difficulties to remain in school, would require an additional $10,000.

Juvenile Justice. A program concentrating on the development of plans for education and job placement for problem youth would cost $45,600. It could serve as a model for churches throughout the Diocese.

Services to Aging and Blind. Contributions in the amount of $20,000 would enable us to double our service to parishes, community groups, and individuals to aid the aging and blind.

Ministry to Prisoners. Establishment of a center to train both clergy and lay persons to carry the Gospel to inmates would cost $23,000.

Ministry to the Dying. Pastoral care to the dying and their families could be provided in hospitals by a minister who would also assist others in the development of these skills. $25,000 would be needed.

All Saints' Hospital. The employment of a nurse to see patients after discharge would enable the hospital to follow up on its treatment plans, in some cases avoiding additional hospitalization. $25,000 needed.

Day Care Center for the Aged. A day care center located at Springfield—All Saints' Hospital would provide medical and other program services to the aged enabling persons to remain in their own homes. The cost would be $75,000.

The future of Episcopal Community Services is with the Church. Otherwise our programs would be like a ship sailing the high seas without map or compass. Throughout the Diocese, Episcopalians support ECS by prayers, volunteer time, ideas, and financial support. Without this support the Gospel in Action would not be possible.

REPORT OF THE PRESIDING BISHOP'S FUND FOR WORLD RELIEF

WHAT IS IT?

This fund is the Episcopal Church's official channel for responding to human need around the world. The Fund is the only source available for immediate relief—or crisis response. Because of the Fund the Presiding Bishop and/or Executive committee can act with immediacy to help relieve suffering when disaster strikes.

Since 1970 the Fund has carried out its work through voluntary contributions, exclusively. The function of our Diocesan Committee for World Relief is to help promote the Fund as the appropriate recipient of individual, group and corporate offerings to this vital instrument of love and concern. Even as disaster respects neither time nor place, we encourage support, not only during Lent, but all year long.
